The Teachings of Shri Vallabhacharya

This collection contains some of Shri Vallabhacharya's important writings, translated from Sanskrit, as well as a few writings from other important authors. This is the most direct approach to understanding Shri Vallabhacharya's Path of Grace. We have also included a translation of Shri Vallabhacharya's sixteen works. These short doctrines give a comprehensive view of the Path of Grace from both philosophical and devotional perspectives.

Siddhant is teaching that brings us to perfection. Siddhant is true philosophy. It is siddha, perfection, at the anta or end. Shri Vallabhacharya's siddhant is strictly for the attainment of Shri Krishna and is full of devotional, inspirational and practical advice for his followers. His words are replete with wisdom and love and are essential bhakti empowerments.

The Blessed Master's teachings nurture the delicate inner seed of devotion and guard it from the confusion and false identification that can cloud our vision and make us forget our true blissful nature. this seed of devotion begins as a subtle notion and can mature into a wishing tree that provides the blessed one with the priceless fruit of bhakti, the supreme unconditional devotion. In that blessed state the Beloved appears in the heart and throughout creation, filling us with His own joy.

His lotus feet appear splendid and create dalliance wherever they touch the earth.

*apṛākṛtākhilākālpa bhūṣitaḥ sahasmitaḥ
trilokībhūṣaṇam bhūmibhāgyam sahasasundarah*

Shri Vallabh is beautifully adorned with divine ornaments. He has a natural smile and is the ornament of the three worlds. He is the world's fortune and naturally beautiful. (32)

अशेष भक्तसंप्रार्थ्यं चरणाब्ज रजोधनः ।
इत्यानन्दनिधेः प्रोक्तं नाम्नामष्टोत्तरं शतम् ॥३३॥

aśeṣa bhaktasamprārthya caraṇābja rajodhanah ityānandanidheḥ proktaṁ nāmnāmaṣṭottaraṁ śatam

All the bhaktas pray for the dust that has touched Shri Vallabh's lotus feet. In this way I have revealed the ocean of bliss, the one hundred and eight names of Shri Vallabhacharya. (33)

श्रद्धाविशुद्ध बुद्धिर्यः पठत्यनुदिनं जनः ।
स तदेकमनाः सिद्धिमुक्तां प्राप्नोत्यसंशयम् ॥३४॥

*śraddhāviśuddha buddhiryaḥ paṭhatyanudinaṁ janah
sa tadekamaṇāḥ siddhimuktāṁ prāpnotyasaṁśayam*

Whoever recites these names of Vallabhacharya with faith, pure intelligence and focused mind will undoubtedly attain the reward of grace-filled Krishna. (34)

तदप्राप्तौ वृथा मोक्षस्तदाप्तौ तदगतार्थता । अतः सर्वोत्तमं स्तोत्रं जप्यं कृष्णरसार्थिभिः ॥३५॥

*tadapṛāptau vṛthā mokṣastadāptau tadgatārthatā
ataḥ sarvottamaṁ stotraṁ japyam kṛṣṇarasārthibhiḥ*

If the grace-filled form of Krishna is not realized, then even the attainment of liberation is useless. If Krishna is attained, however, then one is completely accomplished. And so, this recitation, which is the best of all, should be recited for the attainment of Shri Krishna, Who is pure nectar. (35)

श्रीयमुनाष्टकम्

In Praise of Shri Yamuna

The first of Shri Vallabhacharya's sixteen works is the Yamunastakam. It is his brilliant praise of the divine river Who is also Shri Krishna's most beloved. It is through Shri Yamunaji's grace that one receives the ability to meet Krishna. She is the source of all divine powers and increases the bhakta's love for Shri Krishna. She purifies the earth and removes obstructions that keep bhaktas from experiencing the Blessed Lord. She removes the burdens of this age of struggle, elevates her bhaktas and makes them dear to Krishna. Finally, she transforms the being and makes her fit for His loving service. Shri Vallabhacharya's Praise of Yamuna is the auspicious introduction to his sixteen works. In the master's words :

नमामि यमुनामहं सकलसिद्धिहेतुं मुदा ।

मुरारिपदपंकज स्फुरदमन्दरेणूत्कटाम् ।।

तटस्थ नवकाननप्रकट मोदपुष्पाम्बुना ।

सुरासुर सुपूजितस्मरपितुः श्रियं बिभ्रतीम् ।।१।।

namāmi yamunāmaham sakalasiddhīhetuṁ mudā murāripadapankaja sphuradamandarenūtkatām taṭastha navakānanaprakāṭa modapuspāmbunā
surāsura supūjitasmrapituḥ śriyaṁ bibhratīm

I joyfully bow to Shri Yamunaji, the giver of all divine powers. Her expansive sands shine brightly like the lotus feet of Lord Krishna. Flowers from fresh forests on Her banks mingle with Shri Yamunaji and make Her waters fragrant. Both humble and ascertive Gopis worship Shri Yamunaji well. She contains the beauty of Krishna. (1)

कलिन्दगिरिमस्तके पतदमन्दपूरोज्ज्वला ।

विलास गमनोल्लसत्प्रकट गण्ड शैलोनता ।।

सघोषगतिदन्तुरा समधिरुद्धदोलोत्तमा ।

vilāsa gamanollasatprakāṭa gaṇḍa śailonnatā saghoṣagatidanturā samadhirūḍḍhadolottamā mukundarativardhinī jayati padmabandhoḥ sūtā

Appearing from the heart of Lord Narayan, Shri Yamunaji cascades from the summit of the Kalindi mountain with brilliance. She descends the rocky slopes with dalliance, Her waters roaring as She appears to be swaying in a lovely swing. Glories to Shri Yamunaji, the daughter of the sun, Who increases the bhakta's love for Mukunda. (2)

भुवं भुवन पावनीमधिगतामनेक स्वनैः ।

priyābhiriva sevītāṁ śukamayūrahansādibhiḥ
taraṅgabhujaṅkaṇa prakāṭa muktikāvālukā nitambataṭa sundarīm namata kṛṣṇaturyapriyām

Shri Yamunaji has come to earth for its purification. Like the Gopis serve their beloved Krishna, Shri Yamunaji is served by the many songs of the peacocks, parrots, swans and others. Her waves are Her arms and Her pearly bangles are Her sands. Her banks are her hips. Bow to this beautiful Yamuna, the fourth and foremost beloved of Krishna. (3)

अनन्तगुण भूषिते शिवविरञ्चिदेवस्तुते । घनाघननिभे सदा ध्रुवपराशराभिष्टदे ॥

*ananta-guṇa bhūṣite śivavirañcīdevastute

viśuddha mathurāṭaṭe sakalagopagopīvṛte
krpājalahisāśrite mama manaḥ sukhaṁ bhāvaya*

Embellished with countless virtues, Shri Yamunaji is praised by Shiva, Brahma and others. Her hue is always the color of dark clouds and She fulfills the wishes of Dhruva and Parasha. At Her banks by the pure city of Mathura, She is surrounded by the Gopis. Oh Yamunaji, You have taken the shelter of Shri Krishna, the ocean of grace. Bring joy to my heart. (4)

यया चरणपदमजा मुररिपोः प्रियंभावुका । *yayā caraṇapadmajā muraṛipoh priyaṁbhāvukā

tayā sadṛśatāmiyātkamalajā sapatnīva yat

Only when Ganga merged with You, O Yamunaji, did She become beloved to Krishna and only then was Ganga able to give all devotional powers to those who worship Her. If there is anyone who can come close to You, it would be Your co-wife Shri Laxshmi. May You remain forever in my heart Kalindi, Beloved of Hari, Destroyer of the strifes of this age of Kali. (5)

नमोऽस्तु यमुने सदा तव चरित्रमत्यद्भुतम् । न जातु यमयातना भवति ते पयः पानतः ।

*namo'stu yamune sadā tava caritramatyadbhutam na jātu yamayātanā bhavati te payaḥ pānataḥ yamo'pi bhaginī sutānkathamuhanti duṣṭānapi
priyo bhavati sevanaṭtava hareryathā gopikāḥ*

Obeisances to You forever, Shri Yāmunaji. Your story is most amazing. Those who sip Your waters are never tormented by Yama, the God of retribution, for how could He ever harm the children of His younger sister, even if they are bad? Those who worship You become beloved to Hari just like the Gopis. (6)

ममास्तु तव सन्निधौ तनुनवत्वमेतावता ।
न दुर्लभतमा रतिमुररिपौ मुकुन्दप्रिये ॥ अतोऽस्तु तव लालना सुरधुनी परं संगमात् ।

*mamāstu tava sannidhau tanunavatvametavata
na durlabhatamā ratimuraripau mukundapriye ato'stu tava lālanā surdhunī param saṅgamāt tavaivabhuvi kīrtitā na tu kadāpi puṣṭisthitaiḥ*

By being near you may my body be divinely transformed and renewed. Then it will not be at all difficult to love Krishna. This is why I cherish you. Ganga was praised in the world only after She joined You and grace-filled souls only worship Ganga after she has met You. (7)

स्तुतिं तव करोति कः कमलजा सपत्नि प्रिये ।

*stutiṁ tava karoti kaḥ kamalajā sapatni priye hareryadanusevaya bhavati saukhyamāmokṣataḥ iyam tava kathādhika sakalagopikāsaṅgamah
smaraśramajalāṇubhiḥ sakalgātrajaiḥ sangamah*

Who is capable of praising you, Krishna's beloved Shri Yamunaji, co-wife of Laxshmi? If worshipped in conjunction with Hari, Shri Laxshmi can at best award the bliss of liberation. Your story, however, is far greater, for Your entire body is comprised of the beads of sweat that have dropped from Shri Krishna as He joins with the Gopis. (8)

तवाष्टकमिदं मुदा पठति सूस्सुते सदा ।

tavāṣṭakamidam mudā paṭhati sūrsute sadā samastaduritkṣayo bhavati vai mukunde ratih tayā sakalasiddhayo murripuśca santuṣyati svabhāva vijayo bhavedvadaṭi vallabhah śrīhareḥ

Oh Yamuna, Daughter of the sun! Those who joyfully recite this eight-fold praise have all of their impurities removed and love Krishna, the Giver of liberation. Through You all devotional powers are attained and Shri Krishna is pleased. You transform the nature of your bhaktas, says Shri Vallabhacharya, Beloved of Hari. (9)

बालबोधः

Instructions for Spiritual Children

The next teaching in the Sixteen Works is Shri Vallabhacharya's Instruction for Spiritual Children, the Bala Bodha. It was originally written for Shri Mahaprabhuji's disciple Narayandas. It is truly a guide for novices on the spiritual path and it maps out the different approaches to liberation. After explaining four possible ways to achieve liberation, the Master touches upon the Beloved Devotional Practice.

नत्वा हरिं सदानन्दं सर्वसिद्धांतसंग्रहम् । बालप्रबोधनार्थाय वदामि सुविनिश्चितम् ॥१॥

*natvā harim sadānandam sarvasiddhāntasaṅgraham
bālaprabodhanārthāya vadāmi suvinīṣcitam*

After bowing to the all-blissful Hari, I now explain the essence of all teachings to those souls who are young on the spiritual path. (1)

धर्मार्थकाम-मोक्षाख्याश्चत्वारोऽर्था मनीषिणाम् । जीवेश्वरविचारेण द्विधा ते हि विचारिताः ॥२॥

*dharmārthakāma mokṣākhyāścattvāro'rthā manīṣiṇām
jīveśvaravicāreṇa dvidhā te hi vicāritāḥ*

Sages have revealed that there are four pursuits of human life; dharma, wealth, desire and liberation. These teachings have been considered by teachers as well as God. (2)

अलौकिकास्तु वेदोक्ताः साध्यसाधनसंयुताः लौकिका ऋषिभिः प्रोक्तास्तथेवेश्वर शिक्षया ॥३॥

*alaukikāstu vedoktāḥ sādhyasādhanasamyutāḥ
laukikā ṛṣibhiḥ proktāstatheveśvara śikṣayā*

The Vedas have already addressed the divine reality in terms of how to attain it as well as the object of that attainment. The pursuits of life have also been proclaimed by sages living in the world according to the teachings they received from God. (3)

लौकिकास्तु प्रवक्ष्यामि वेदादाद्या यतः स्थिताः ।
धर्मशास्त्राणि नीतिश्च कामशास्त्राणि च क्रमात् ॥४॥

त्रिवर्गसाधकानीति न तन्निर्णय उच्यते ।

मोक्षे चत्वारि शास्त्राणि लौकिके परतः स्वतः ॥५॥

*laukikāṁstu pravakṣyāmi vedādādyā yataḥ sthitāḥ dharmaśāstrāṇi nītiśca kamaśāstrāṇi ca kramāt trivargasādhakānīti na tannirṇaya ucyate
mokṣe catvāri śāstrāṇi laukike parataḥ svataḥ*

I will now explain the goals that sages have revealed. The Vedas have explained the divine reality. The doctrines that address dharma (proper behaviour), wealth and erotics have already explained the way of attaining these three pursuits of life and so I will not discuss them here. In this world there are four traditions concerning liberation, the fourth pursuit of life. Two schools teach that liberation is attained through self-effort while the other two paths take the assistance of God. (4-5)

द्विधा द्वे द्वे स्वतस्तत्र सांख्ययोगौ प्रकीर्तितौ । त्यागात्याग-विभागेन सांख्ये त्यागः प्रकीर्तितः ॥६॥

dvidhā dve dve svatastatra sāmṁkhyayogau prakīrtitāḥ tyāgātyāgavibhāgena sāmṁkhye tyāgaḥ prakīrtitāḥ

Both Yoga and Sankhya have been mentioned as the two schools whereby self-effort can produce the liberated state. The Sankhya system teaches external renunciation while the school of eight-fold yoga does not promote external renunciation. (6)

अहंताममतानाशे सर्वथा निरहंकृतौ ।

स्वरूपस्थो यदा जीवः कृतार्थ स निगद्यते ॥७॥

ahantāmamatānāśe sarvathā nirhaṁkṛtau svarūpastho yadā jīvaḥ kṛtārtha sa nigadyate

Practitioners in these two schools are deemed spiritually accomplished when they become forever free of all of their mistaken identifications relating to "me and mine". Then they become established in their true form. (7)

तदर्थं प्रक्रिया काचित्पुराणेऽपि निरूपिता ।

ऋषिभिर्बहुधा प्रोक्ता फलमेकमबाह्यतः ॥८॥

*tadarthaṁ prakriyā kācitpurāṇe'pi nirūpitā
ṛṣibhirbahudhā proktā phalamekamabāhyataḥ*

The actual methods for liberation have been revealed in certain portions of the Puranas. Enlightened sages have spoken about liberation in many different ways and the final reward that they all refer to is the same, as long as it doesn't contradict Vedic traditions. (8)

अत्यागे योगमार्गो हि त्यागोऽपि मनसैव हि । यमादयस्तु कर्तव्याः सिद्धे योगे कृतार्थता ॥९॥

atyāge yogmārgo hi tyāgo'pi manasaiva hi yamādayastu kartavyāḥ siddhe yoge kṛtārthatā

In the Path of Yoga, renunciation is not external, but is done inwardly with the mind. The eight-fold practice of knowing what to do, what to avoid, sitting properly, breath control, focus, one-pointed concentration, meditation and total absorption (samādhi) must all be perfected in this yoga for the practitioner to become accomplished. (9)

पराश्रयेण मोक्षस्तु द्विधा सोऽपि निरूप्यते ।
ब्रह्मा ब्राह्मणतां यातस्तद्रूपेण सुसेव्यते । १० ।।
ते सर्वार्था न चाद्येन शास्त्रं किञ्चिदुदीरितम् । अतः शिवश्च विष्णुश्च जगतो हितकारकौ । ११ ।।

*parāśrayeṇa mokśastu dvidhā so'pi nirūpyate
brahmā brāhmaṇtām yāstadrūpeṇa susevyate te sarvārthā na cādyena śāstraṁ kiñcidudīritam
ataḥ śivaśca viṣṇuśca jagato hitkārakau*

The two-fold path of liberation that relies upon the help of another (either Vishnu or Shiva) has also been recognized in Vedic literature. Know that the Creator Brahma is worshipped only by Brahmins in order for them to perfect their Brahmanhood. Therefore Brahma is not resorted to for liberation although there are a few mentions of Brahma awarding it. For those souls who desire to attain liberation with the help of another, both Shiva and Vishnu have been known to be their benefactors in this world. (10-11)

वस्तुनः स्थितिसंहारौ कार्यौ शास्त्रप्रवर्तकौ ।
ब्रह्मैव तादृशं यस्मात्सर्वात्मकतयोदितौ । १२ ।।

*vastunaḥ sthitisamhārau kāryau śāstrapravartakau
brahmaiva tādrśam yasmātsarvātmakatayoditau*

Vishnu is the sustainer of creation while Shiva is the destroyer. Both have been revealed as such in their own scriptures. Know without a doubt that the Supreme Brahman is both Vishnu and Shiva for they have both been declared as the Self of all things. (12)

निर्दोषपूर्णगुणता तत्तच्छास्त्रे तयोः कृता । भोगमोक्षफले दातुं शक्तौ द्वावपि यद्यपि । १३ ।।

nirdoṣapūrnagunatā tattacchastre tayoḥ kṛtā bhogamokśaphale dātum śaktau dvāvapi yadyapi

They have also been described in their own scriptures as flawless and replete with all divine virtues. Even though both are able to award enjoyment and liberation. (13)

भोगः शिवेन मोक्षस्तु विष्णु नेति विनिश्चयः ।
लोकेऽपि यत्प्रभुर्भुक्ते तन्न यच्छति कर्हिचित् । १४ ।।
अतिप्रियाय तदपि दीयते क्वचिदेव हि । नियतार्थप्रदानेन तदीयत्वं तदाश्रयः । १५ ।।

bhogaḥ śivena mokśastu viṣṇu neti viniścayaḥ loke'pi yatprabhurbhukte tanna yacchati karhicit atipriyāya tadapi dīyate kvacideva hi niyatārthapradānena tadīyatvaṁ tadāśrayaḥ

It is quite clear that Shiva gives enjoyment while Vishnu bestows liberation. A powerful person in the world does not give away that which he cherishes most, except on rare occasion and even then, he would only give to someone who is very dear to him. Since Shiva's greatest asset is liberation and Vishnu's great joy is His enjoyment with Laxshmi, Shiva gives enjoyment while Vishnu awards liberation. They reward those who belong to Them and have taken their refuge. (14-15)

प्रत्येकं साधनं चैतद् द्वितीयार्थे महान् श्रमः ।
जीवाः स्वभावतो दुष्टा दोषाभावाय सर्वदा ।।१६।।
श्रवणादिकृतः प्रेम्णा सर्वं कार्यं हि सिद्ध्यति ।
मोक्षस्तु सुलभो विष्णोर्भोगश्च शिवतस्तथा ।।१७।।

*pratyekaṁ sādhanam caitad dvitīyārthe mahān śramah
jīvāḥ svabhāvato duṣṭā doṣābhāvāya sarvadā śravaṇādikṛtaḥ premṇā sarvaṁ kāryam hi siddhyati mokṣastu sulabho viṣṇorbhogaśca śivatastathā*

Vishnu and Shiva each have their own specific practices that their followers adhere to in order to attain their respective rewards. If either Shiva or Vishnu have to give something that They are not accustomed to giving, then it is very difficult for Them to do that. Souls are by their very nature impure. In order for them to become forever free of impurities, they should practice devotional listening and other appropriate spiritual practices. Everything becomes accomplished when love arises from all their efforts. So know that liberation is easily attained from Vishnu and similarly, enjoyment is readily granted by Shiva. (16-17)

समर्पणेनात्मनो हि तदीयत्वं भवेद्ध्रुवम् ।
अतदीयतया चापि केवलश्चेत्समाश्रितः ।।१८।।
तदाश्रय तदीयत्वं बुद्ध्यै किञ्चित्समाचरेत् ।
स्वधर्ममनुतिष्ठन् वै भारद्वैगुण्यमन्यथा ।।
इत्येवं कथितं सर्वं नैतज्ज्ञाने भ्रमः पुनः ।।१९।।

*samarpaṇenātmano hi tadīyatvaṁ bhaveddhruvam atadīyatayā cāpi kevalaścetsamāśritaḥ tadāśraya tadīyatva buddhyai kiñcitsamācaret svadharmamanutiṣṭhan vai bhārdvaignyamanyathā
ityevaṁ kathitaṁ sarvaṁ naitajjñāne bhramah punaḥ*

A practitioner certainly attains the exalted position of belonging to Him when there is Self-dedication. If the divine state of Belonging has not arisen, then one should take His shelter and feel that one belongs to Him while observing at least some dharma practices that are prescribed for that particular stage of life. If one does not attend to these practices, then one's burden will be two-fold, for the spiritual state of Belonging has not been achieved nor has the merit of proper action. By understanding all that I have said in this teaching, confusion concerning the pursuits of life will never arise. (18-19)

सिद्धान्तमुक्तावली The Pearl Necklace Teachings

Shri Vallabhacharya now moves us directly into the Pushti arena with his Pearl Necklace Teachings. This amazing doctrine was originally composed for his disciple Achutyadas, who became the recipient of the highest reward: continual Krishna awareness. The master reveals the nature of Shri Krishna's seva and the divine act of serving the Beloved. He also gives important empowerments concerning the nature of the world. These teachings are especially useful for bhaktas who want to take an active part in divine service within God's creation, but need to understand the subtle relationship between Manifest Divinity, Unmanifested Brahman and the world for their parts to fully unfold.

नत्वा हरिं प्रवक्ष्यामि स्वसिद्धान्तं विनिश्चयम् । कृष्ण सेवा सदा कार्या, मानसी सा परा मता ॥१॥

*natvā harim pravakṣyāmi svasiddhānta viniścayam
kṛṣṇa sevā sadā kāryā mānasī sā parā matā*

Having bowed by head to Hari, I will now tell you my own teachings with great certainty. Always perform Shri Krishna's pleasing service or seva. The highest form of seva is when it spontaneously fills the mind and heart. (1)

चेतस्तत्प्रवणं सेवा तत्सिद्ध्यै तनुवित्तजा । ततः संसारदुःखस्य निवृत्तिर्ब्रह्मबोधनम् ॥२॥

*cetastatpravaṇam sevā tatsidhyai tanuvittajā
tataḥ saṁsāraduḥkhasya nivṛttirbrahmabodhanam*

This state of being arises when one's consciousness is threaded into Krishna. In order to attain this state, bhaktas employ their bodies together with their wealth in Shri Krishna's beloved service. Then the pains of the world are removed and knowledge of Brahman arises. (2)

परं ब्रह्म तु कृष्णो हि सच्चिदानन्दकं बृहत् ।
द्विरूपं तद्धि सर्वं स्यादेकं तस्माद्विलक्षणम् ॥३॥

param brahma tu kṛṣṇo hi saccidānandakam bṛhat dvirūpaṁ taddhi sarvaṁ syādekam tasmādvilakṣaṇam

Without a doubt, Shri Krishna is Supreme Brahman. The Omnipresent Brahman is comprised of truth, consciousness and qualified Bliss and has two forms. Brahman is everything in creation as well as that which is distinct from everything -the imperishable formless source. (3)

अपरं तत्र पूर्वस्मिन्वादिनो बहुधा जगुः । मायिकं सगुणं कार्यं स्वतन्त्रं चेति नैकधा ॥४॥

*aparam tatra pūrvasminvādino bahudhā jaguḥ
māyikam saguṇam kāryam svatantram ceti naikadhā*

Many contrary opinions about the nature of this Great Brahman have been contrived. Some say that this world is an illusion while others claim that it is a combination of various attributes. Some even argue that it is simply an effect and others say that the world is independant. They do not share a common view. (4)

तदेवैतत्प्रकारेण भवतीतिश्रुतेर्मतम् ।
द्विरूपं चापि गंगावज्ज्ञेयं सा जलरूपिणी ॥५॥

माहात्म्यसंयुता नृणां सेवतां भुक्तिमुक्तिदा । मर्यादामार्गविधिना तथा ब्रह्मापि बुध्यताम् ॥६॥

*tadevaitatprakāreṇa bhavatītiśruter matam
dvirūpaṁ cāpi gangāvajjñeyam sā jalarūpiṇī māhātmyasamnyutā nṛṇāṁ sevātām bhuktimuktidā maryādāmārgavidhinā tathā brahmāpi budhyatām*

If we look at this world with regard to what the Vedic texts say, we see that it is purely Brahman and that it has a dual nature that can be understood by the example of the Ganges river. One form of the Ganges river is her water. It is seen by all. The second form is that of the holy Ganges, the pilgrimage site that is filled with spiritual greatness. This form of the Ganges is honored by practitioners who worship her according to the guidelines of the scriptures. The Ganges grants them enjoyment or even liberation. (5-6)

तत्रैव देवतामूर्तिर्भक्त्या या दृश्यते क्वचित् ।
गंगायां च विशेषेण प्रवाहाभेदबुद्धये ॥७॥
प्रत्यक्षा सा न सर्वेषां प्राकाम्यं स्यात्तया जले । विहिताच्च फलात्तद्धि प्रतीत्यापि विशिष्यते ॥८॥

tatraiva devatāmūrtirbhaktyā yā drśyate kvacit gangāyaṁ ca viśeṣeṇa pravāhābheda buddhaye pratyakṣā sā na sarveṣāṁ prākāmyam syāttayā jale vihitācca phalāttaddhi pratītyāpi viśiṣyate

The third form of the Ganges river is her Goddess or Devi aspect. The Ganges is occasionally seen by her beloved followers as the Ganges Goddess who is non-separate from her waters, yet still distinct. The Devi is not seen by all, but by her bhaktas and their desires are fulfilled through her waters. This experience of coming face to face with the Goddess is superior to all rewards that are mentioned in the sacred texts. (7-8)

यथा जलं तथा सर्वं यथा शक्ता तथा बृहत् । यथा देवी तथा कृष्णस्तत्राप्येतदिहोच्यते ॥९॥

*yathā jalam tathā sarvaṁ yathā śaktā tathā brhat
yathā devī tathā kṛṣṇastatrāpyetadihocyate*

Understand the Ganges' water as being the visible creation. Her sacred powers that are contained within her holy site are the Great Brahman while the Goddess Ganges should be understood, in this analogy, as being the Supremely Blissful Krishna. (9)

जगत्तु त्रिविधं प्रोक्तं ब्रह्माविष्णुशिवास्ततः ।
देवता रूपवत्प्रोक्ता ब्रह्मणीत्थं हरिर्मतः ॥१०॥

*jagattu trividhaṁ proktaṁ brahmāviṣṇuśivāstataḥ
devatā rūpavatproktā brahmaṇīttam harirmataḥ*

As for the nature of the creation, it has also been spoken of as three-fold with Brahma, Vishnu and Shiva as its controlling Deities. Brahman's presiding Deity is distinct from Brahma, Vishnu and Shiva and is known as Hari or Shri Krishna Himself. (10)

कामचारस्तु लोकेऽस्मिन्ब्रह्मादिभ्यो न चान्यथा । परमानन्दरूपे तु कृष्णे स्वात्मनि निश्चयः ॥११॥

*kāmacāraṣtu loke'sminbrahmādibhyo na cānyathā
paramānandarūpe tu kṛṣṇe svātmani niścayaḥ*

For attainment of worldly desires only Brahma the creator or other bonafied devas should be resorted to. Without a doubt, one's own Inner Self is Krishna and He is filled with Perfect Joy. (11)

अतस्तु ब्रह्मवादेन कृष्णे बुद्धिर्विधीयताम् ।
आत्मनि ब्रह्मरूपे हि छिद्रा व्योम्नीव चेतनाः ॥१२॥
उपाधिनाशे विज्ञाने ब्रह्मात्मत्वावबोधने । गंगातीरस्थितो यद्वददेवतां तत्र पश्यति ॥१३॥

atastu brahmavādena kṛṣṇe buddhirvidhīyatām ātmani brhamarūpe hi chidrā vyomnīva cetanāḥ upādhināśe vijñāne brahmātmavāvabodhane gangātīrasthito yadvaddevatām tatra paśyati

While following the teachings that everything is Brahman and nothing but Brahman, blessed ones focus their minds upon Shri Krishna. Although the Self is a pure form of Brahman, due to ignorance it appears distorted like when the sky is seen through a sieve, it is full of false holes. When this limiting ignorance is eliminated through knowledge, then one awakens to the understanding that the soul is truly Brahman. Like someone that stays by the banks of the Ganges sees the Goddess in the water. (12-13)

तथा कृष्णं परंब्रह्म स्वस्मिन् ज्ञानी प्रपश्यति ।
संसारी यस्तु भजते स दूरस्थो यथा तथा ॥१४॥
अपेक्षित जलादीनामभावात्तत्र दुःखभाक् ।
तस्माच्छ्रीकृष्ण मार्गस्थो विमुक्तः सर्वलोकतः ॥१५॥

*tathā kṛṣṇaṁ parambrhma svasmin jñānī prapaśyati
saṁsārī yastu bhajate sa dūrastho yathā tathā apekṣita jalādīnāmabhāvāttatra duḥkhabhāk tasmācchriḥkṛṣṇa mārghostho vimuktaḥ sarvalokataḥ*

Similarly the wise one stands on the banks of the world and sees Shri Krishna, Supreme Brahman, within the Self and the world. The one who worships Ganges but remains far from her banks grieves over the distance from the cherished waters. In a similar way, the worldly person who worships, yet does not see God in the world that he lives in, suffers. The one who treads the blessed Path of Shri Krishna's worship is forever free from the world of bondage. (14-15)

आत्मानंदसमुद्रस्थं कृष्णमेव विचिंतयेत् । लोकार्थी चेदभजेत्कृष्णं क्लिष्टो भवति सर्वथा ॥१६॥

*ātmānandasamudrasthaṁ kṛṣṇameva vicintayet
lokārthī cedbhajetkṛṣṇaṁ kliṣṭo bhavati sarvathā*

He blissfully contemplates Krishna who lives in the ocean of His own joy. Those who worship Krishna for worldly reasons always encounter difficulties. (16)

क्लिष्टोपि चेदभजेत्कृष्णं लोको नश्यति सर्वथा ।
ज्ञानाभावे पुष्टिमार्गी तिष्ठेत्पूजोत्सवादिषु ॥१७॥

*kliṣṭopi cedbhajetkṛṣṇaṁ loko naśyati sarvathā
jñānābhāve puṣṭimārgī tiṣṭhetpūjotsavādiṣu*

Those who worship Shri Krishna amidst difficulties have every worldly obstruction obliterated. If a practitioner is devoid of knowledge, then he should remain in a place where pujas and celebrations are performed. (17)

मर्यादास्थस्तु गंगायां श्रीभागवततत्परः । अनुग्रहः पुष्टिमार्गं नियामक इति स्थितिः ॥१८॥

*maryādāsthastu gangāyaṁ śrībhāgavatatatparaḥ
anugrahaḥ puṣṭimārge niyāmaka iti sthitiḥ*

The follower of scripture and knowledge should enhance his practice by staying by the Ganges river and reviewing the teachings of the devotional text, the Shrimad Bhagavatam. In every situation, know that grace rules the Blessed Path. (18)

उभयोस्तु क्रमेणैव पूर्वोक्तैव फलिष्यति ।
ज्ञानाधिको भक्तिमार्गः एवं तस्मात् निरूपितः ॥१६॥

*ubhayostu krameṇaiva pūrvoktaiva phaliṣyati
jñānādhika bhaktimārgaḥ evaṁ tasmāt nirūpitah*

Both of these types of practitioners can attain the supreme reward. It is clearly explained, however, that the Path of Loving Devotion is superior to the Path of Knowledge. (19)

भक्त्यभावे तु तीरस्थो यथा दुष्टैः स्वकर्मभिः । अन्यथा भावमापन्नः तस्मात्स्थानाच्च नश्यति ॥२०॥

*bhaktiabhāve tu tīrastho yathā duṣṭaiḥ svakarmabhiḥ
anyathā bhāvamāpannaḥ tasmāsthānācca naśyati*

Just like a devotionally ignorant person who performs evil deeds by the Ganges destroys himself as well as the sanctity of the place, a person who lives in this sacred world without devotion does not attain any spiritual goals and descends into darkness. (20)

एवं स्वशास्त्रसर्वस्वं मया गुप्तं निरूपितम् । एतद्बुद्ध्वा विमुच्येत पुरुषः सर्वसंशयात् ॥२१॥

evaṁ svaśāstrasarvasvaṁ mayā guptaṁ nirūpitam etadbuddhvā vimucyeta puruṣaḥ sarvasaṁśayaāt

In this way I have revealed my all-encompassing secret doctrine. By understanding it one becomes free of any doubt. (21)

पुष्टिप्रवाह मर्यादा भेद

The Paths of Grace, Mundane Flow and Lawful Limitations

Now Shri Vallabhacharya brings us further into his grace-filled world by describing the different natures of beings. At the absolute level, everything is Brahman, but beings appear in this world with various temperaments. Their paths and rewards are all particular. By recognizing the variety of soul types, their origins and activities, we can further understand and then develop our own. In the master's words :

पुष्टिप्रवाहमर्यादा विशेषेण पृथक्पृथक् । जीवदेहक्रियाभेदैः प्रवाहेण फलेन च ॥११॥

*puṣṭipravāhamaryādā viśeṣeṇa prthak prthak
jivadehakriyābhedaḥ pravāheṇa phalena ca*

Beings belonging to the Paths of Grace, Mundane Flow and Lawful Limitations each have distinct souls, bodies, actions, movements and rewards. (1)

वक्ष्यामि सर्वसन्देहा न भविष्यन्ति यच्छ्रुतेः । भक्तिमार्गस्य कथनात्पुष्टिरस्तीति निश्चयः ॥२२॥

vakṣyāmi sarvasaṁdehā na bhaviṣyanti yacchruteḥ bhaktimārgasya kathanātpuṣṭirastiti niścayaḥ

I will explain their differences and whoever hears my teachings will have their doubts removed. The Path of Devotion has been mentioned in the scriptures and from those passages we comprehend that the grace of God exists. (2)

द्वौ भूतसर्गावित्युक्तेः प्रवाहोऽपि व्यवस्थितः । वेदस्य विद्यमानत्वान्मर्यादापि व्यवस्थिता ॥३॥

*dvau bhūtasargāvityukteḥ pravāho'pi vyavasthitah
vedasya vidyamānatvānmaryādāpi vyavasthitā*

In the Gita, Lord Krishna tells Arjuna, "In this world there are two types of souls, Godly and ungodly." From this statement we can affirm the existence of ungodly souls who follow the worldly flow. The presence of the Vedas establishes the existence of the Path of Lawful limitations. (3)

कश्चिदेव हि भक्तो हि यो मदभक्त इतीरणात् । सर्वत्रोत्कर्षकथनात् पुष्टिरस्तीति निश्चयः ॥४॥
न सर्वोऽतः प्रवाहाद्धि भिन्नो वेदाच्च भेदतः । यदा यस्येति वचनान्नाहं वेदैरितीरणात् ॥५॥

*kaścid eva hi bhakto hi yo madbhakta itīraṇāt sarvatrotkarṣakathanāt puṣṭirastīti niścayaḥ
na sarvo'taḥ pravāhāddhi bhinno vedācca bhedataḥ
yadā yasyeti vacanānnāhaṁ vedairitīraṇāt*

Shri Krishna says in the Gita, "My bhakta is very dear to Me." Only certain souls are true bhaktas. Everywhere there are mentions of bhakti as being exalted and this proves without a doubt the existence of Grace. Grace-filled souls are distinct from souls in the worldly flow as well as from law-abiding Vedic practitioners. The Bhagavat confirms this with the statement, "When the Lord graces someone they abandon the ways of the world and Vedas". Shri Krishna also tells Arjuna, "This divine form of mine cannot be seen by knowing the Vedas." (4-5)

मार्गेकत्वेऽपि चेदन्त्यौ तनू भक्त्यागमौ मतौ ।
न तद्युक्तं सूत्रतो हि भिन्नो युक्त्या हि वैदिकः ॥६॥

*mārgaikatve'pi cedantyaū tanū bhaktyāgamau matau
na tadyuktaṁ sūtrato hi bhinno yuktyā hi vaidikah*

The Sutras, (sacred texts) have clearly explained the peculiarities of these three paths. Sacred Vedic texts do not support the views of those who believe that the three paths are really one and are all a part of devotion. (6)

जीवदेहकृतीनां च भिन्नत्वं नित्यताश्रुतेः । यथा तद्वत्पुष्टिमार्गे द्वयोरपि निषेधतः ॥७॥

*jivadehakṛtīnāṁ ca bhinnatvaṁ nityatāśruteḥ
yathā tadvatpuṣṭimārge dvayorapi niṣedhataḥ*

According to the Srutis, the souls, bodies and actions of the three different types of souls are forever different. (7)

प्रमाणभेदादभिन्नो हि पुष्टिमार्गो निरूपितः । सर्गभेदंप्रवक्ष्यामि स्वरूपांगक्रियायुतम् ॥८॥

*pramāṇabhedādbhinno hi puṣṭimārgo nirūpitaḥ
sargabhedam pravakṣyāmi svarūpāṅgakriyāyutam*

From these proofs it is established that the Path of Grace does not contain the other two paths. Other valid scriptural passages also narrate the distinct nature of the Path of Grace. Now hear the differences in origin of the souls, bodies and actions of these different types of beings. (8)

इच्छामात्रेण मनसा प्रवाहं सृष्टवान् हरिः । वचसा वेदमार्गं हि पुष्टिं कायेन निश्चयः ॥९॥

*icchāmātreṇa manasā pravāhaṁ sṛṣṭavān hariḥ
vacasā vedamārgaṁ hi puṣṭim kāyena niścayaḥ*

The Blessed Lord created the Path of Worldly Flow with His mere wish, with His mind. With His speech He created the Path of Lawful Limitation and without a doubt from His Bliss Form came the Path of Grace. (9)

मूलेच्छातः फलं लोके वेदोक्तं वैदिकेऽपि च । कायेन तु फलं पुष्टौ भिन्नेच्छातोऽपि नैकधा ॥१०॥

*mūlecchātaḥ phalaṁ loke vedoktaṁ vaidike'pi ca
kāyena tu phalaṁ puṣṭau bhinnecchāto'pi naikadhā*

Worldly-based desires bear worldly rewards. Lawful rewards are described in the Vedas while the grace-filled fruit arises from His own Bliss Form. These paths are never the same because of different desires. (10)

तानहं द्विषतो वाक्यादभिन्नाजीवाः प्रवाहिणः । अत एवेतरौ भिन्नौ सान्तौ मोक्षप्रवेशतः ॥११॥

*tānaḥ dviṣato vākyaādbhinnā jivāḥ pravāhiṇaḥ
ata evetarau bhinnau sāntau mokṣapraveśataḥ*

Shri Krishna says in the Gita, "Those ungodly, cruel-hearted souls I repeatedly cast into demonical wombs." This passage demonstrates that worldly souls are different from the souls who follow the paths of Law and Grace. Souls on the path of Law or Grace can ultimately attain freedom from rebirth. (11)

तस्माज्जीवाः पुष्टिमार्गे भिन्ना एव न संशयः । भगवद्रूपसेवार्थं तत्पुष्टिर्नान्यथा भवेत् ॥१२॥

*tasmājjivāḥ puṣṭimārge bhinnā eva na saṁśayaḥ
bhagavadrūpasevārthaṁ tatsṛṣṭirnānyathā bhavet*

Therefore souls on the Path of Grace are undoubtedly different from the other two types. The creation of grace-filled souls is strictly for the loving service of the Blessed Blissful Lord. (12)

स्वरूपेणावतारेण लिङ्गेन च गुणेन च । तारतम्यं न स्वरूपे देहे वा तत्क्रियासु वा ॥१३॥

*svarūpeṇāvatāreṇa liṅgena ca guṇena ca
tāratamyam na svarūpe dehe vā tatkriyāsu vā*

There is no remarkable difference between the Lord's form, avatar, the markings on His body, His virtues and the bhakta's souls, bodies and actions. (13)

तथापि यावता कार्यं तावत्तस्य करोति हि । ते हि द्विधा शुद्धमिश्रभेदान्मिश्रास्त्रिधा पुनः ॥१४॥

*tathāpi yāvatā kāryam tāvattasya karoti hi
te hi dvidhā śuddhamiśrabhedānmiśrāstridhā punaḥ*

Still the Blessed One creates souls according to the types of activities they will undertake. The grace-filled creation is two-fold; either mixed or pure. The mixed souls fall into three categories. (14)

प्रवाहादिविभेदेन भगवत्कार्यसिद्धये ।
पुष्ट्या विमिश्राः सर्वज्ञाः प्रवाहेन क्रियारताः ॥१५॥

*pravāhādivibhedena bhagavatkāryasiddhaye
puṣṭyā vimiśrāḥ sarvajñāḥ pravāheṇa kṛiyārataḥ*

The Blessed One created divine, worldly and lawful souls to fulfill His own purpose. Those who are grace combined with grace, (pushti mixed with pushti) are all-knowing. Those who are souls of grace but are mixed with worldly flow are inclined towards action. (15)

मर्यादया गुणज्ञास्ते शुद्धाः प्रेम्णातिदुर्लभाः । एवं सर्गस्तु तेषां हि फलं त्वत्र निरूप्यते ॥१६॥

*maryādayā guṇajñāste śuddhāḥ premṇātidurlabhāḥ
evaṁ sargastu teṣāṁ hi phalaṁ tvatra nirūpyate*

The souls of grace who are mixed with law are knowers of God's attributes. The one who becomes pure pushti through love alone is very rare. In this way understand how the grace-filled ones arise. Now hear about their rewards. (16)

भगवानेव हि फलं स यथाविर्भवेदभुवि । गुणस्वरूपभेदेन तथा तेषां फलं भवेत् ॥१७॥

*bhagavāneva hi phalaṁ sa yathāvirbhavedbhuvī
guṇasvarūpabhedena tathā teṣāṁ phalaṁ bhavet*

Krishna Himself is their reward and appears before them on earth with different forms and attributes to give them their particular rewards. (17)

आसक्तौ भगवानेव शापं दापयति क्वचित् । अहंकारेऽथवा लोके तन्मार्गस्थापनाय हि ॥१८॥
āsaktau bhagavāneva śāpaṁ dāpayati kvacit ahaṁkāre'thavā loke tanmārgasthāpanāya hi

Sometimes the Blessed Lord may put a curse on a blessed follower who has become prideful or falsely attached in order to reestablish him or her back upon the path in this world. (18)

न ते पाषण्डतां यान्ति न च रोगाद्युपद्रवः । महानुभावाः प्रायेण शास्त्रं शुद्धत्वहेतवे ॥१९॥

*na te pāṣaṇḍatām yānti na ca rogādyu^{het}dravaḥ
mahānubhāvāḥ prāyeṇa śāstraṁ śuddhata^{het}ahetave*

They do not act in a contrary way nor do they experience disease or complications. They generally become beings with profound experience and God's teachings are given to them for purification. (19)

भगवत्तारतम्येन तारतम्यं भजन्ति हि । लौकिकत्वं वैदिकत्वं कापट्यात्तेषु नान्यथा ॥२०॥

bhagavattāratamyena tāratamyam bhajanti hi laukikatvaṁ vaidikatvaṁ kāpatyāttesu nānyathā

Bhaktas worship the Blessed Lord according to the way He manifests. Their worldly and Vedic activities are only an outward show devoid of heart-connection. (20)

वैष्णवत्वं हि सहजं ततोऽन्यत्र विपर्ययः । सम्बन्धिनस्तु ये जीवाः प्रवाहस्थास्तथापरे ॥२१॥

*vaiṣṇavatvaṁ hi saha^{het}am tato'nyatra viparyayaḥ
sambandhinastu ye jivāḥ pravāhasthāstathāpare*

The loving path of devotion, the Vaishnava dharma is perfectly natural for them. Everything else appears incompatible to them. There is yet another type of soul who, although being established in worldly flow, flirts with all the paths. (21)

चर्षणीशब्दवाच्यास्ते ते सर्वे सर्ववर्त्मसु । क्षणात्सर्वत्वमायान्ति रुचिस्तेषां न कुत्रचित् ॥२२॥

carṣaṇīśabdavaācyaṣṭe te sarve sarvavartmasu kṣaṇātsarvatvamāyānti rucisteṣāṁ na kutracit

I call them wanderers. They jump from one path to another staying on each one for but a moment. They do not savor nor feel attachment anywhere. (22)

तेषां क्रियानुसारेण सर्वत्र सकलं फलम् ।

प्रवाहस्थान् प्रवक्ष्यामिस्वरूपांग क्रियायुतान् ॥२३॥

teṣāṁ kriyānusāreṇa sarvatra sakalam phalam pravāhasthān pravakṣyāmi svarūpāṅga kriyāyutān

According to their scattered actions, they always receive partial rewards. Now I describe the worldly soul's inner being, body, and actions. (23)

जीवास्ते ह्यासुराः सर्वे प्रवृत्तिं चेति वर्णिताः ।

ते च द्विधा प्रकीर्त्यन्ते ह्यज्ञदुर्जविभेदतः ॥२४॥

दुर्जास्ते भगवत्प्रोक्ता ह्यज्ञास्ताननु ये पुनः ।

प्रवाहेऽपि समागत्य पुष्टिस्थस्तैर्न युज्यते ।

सोऽपि तैस्तत्कुले जातः कर्मणा जायते यतः ॥२५॥

*jivāste hyāsuraḥ sarve pravṛttim ceti varṇitāḥ
te ca dvidhā prakīrtyante hyajñadurjñavibhedataḥ durjñāste bhagavatproktā hyajñāstānanu ye punaḥ pravāhe'pi samāgatya puṣṭisthastairna yujyate
so'pi taistatkule jātāḥ karmaṇā jāyate yataḥ*

Krishna speaks of them in the Gita, "They do not know what to do or what not to do. They are devoid of purity, good conduct and truth." These ungodly souls are of two types, ignorant and truly wicked. Shri Krishna has already described the nature of the purely wicked in the Gita. Those who are merely ignorant emulate the ways of the wicked but are not really demonical. A divine soul who is born into a family full of worldly beings does not remain on the family's path, but within the Path of Grace. Their previous karmas were responsible for their birth but not for their spiritual path. (24-25) (Translator's note: This treatise is incomplete.)

सिद्धान्तरहस्यम् The Secret Doctrine

Shri Vallabhacharya's Secret Doctrine is Shri Krishna's direct response to the master's concern about how divine souls can achieve their Blissful Lord during this impure age of Kali. The foundations of his Path of Grace were established on that auspicious night, by the banks of the Yamuna river in the sacred town of Gokul by Shri Krishna Himself. The secrets of soulful dedication and divine connection are revealed in the following eight slokas.

श्रावणस्यामले पक्षे एकादश्यां महानिशि । साक्षाद्भगवता प्रोक्तं तदक्षरशः उच्यते ॥१॥

śrāvaṇasyāmale pakṣe ekādaśyāṁ mahāniśi sākṣādbhagavatā proktaṁ tadakṣaraśaḥ ucyate

At midnight on the eleventh day during the bright half of the month of Shravan, Shri Krishna appeared before me. I will now reveal the words He spoke. (1)

ब्रह्मसम्बन्ध करणात्सर्वेषां देहजीवयोः ।
सर्वदोषनिवृत्तिर्हि दोषाः पञ्चविधाः स्मृताः ॥२॥

*brahmasambandha karaṇātsarveṣāṁ deha-jīvayoḥ
sarvadoṣanivṛttirhi doṣāḥ pañcavidhāḥ smṛtāḥ*

Shri Krishna explained to me that after taking Brahma Sambandha (after establishing a connection to Brahman), the impurities of that soul are completely removed. These impurities are said to be of five kinds. (2)

सहजा देशकालोत्था लोकवेदनिरूपिताः । संयोगजाः स्पर्शजाश्च न मन्तव्याः कथंचन ॥३॥

sahajā deśakālotthā lokavedanirūpitāḥ saṁyogajāḥ sparśajāśca na mantavyāḥ kathañcana

They are mentioned in Vedic and worldly texts and concern natural impurities as well as impurities relating to time, place, association and physical contact. After taking Brahma Sambandha they should no longer be considered valid. (3)

अन्यथा सर्वदोषाणां न निवृत्तिः कथंचन । असमर्पितवस्तूनां तस्माद्वर्जनमाचरेत् ॥४॥

anyathā sarvadoṣāṇāṁ na nivṛttiḥ kathañcana asamarpitavastūnāṁ tasmādvajanamācaret

These impurities can never be removed without connection to Brahman. Therefore anything that has not been offered to God should not be used. (4)

निवेदिभिः समर्प्यैव सर्वं कुर्यादिति स्थितिः । न मतं देवदेवस्य सामिभुक्त समर्पणम् ॥५॥

*nivedibhiḥ samarpyaiva sarvaṁ kuryāditi sthitiḥ
na mataṁ devadevasya sāmibhukta samarpaṇam*

Dedicated souls should perform all activities by first offering them to the Blessed Lord. This is the way a bhakta should always live. Anything that has been previously enjoyed should never be offered to Shri Krishna, the Supreme Lord of all the devas. (5)

तस्मादादौ सर्वकार्ये सर्ववस्तुसमर्पणम् ।
दत्तापहारवचनं तथा च सकलं हरेः ॥६॥

न ग्राह्यमिति वाक्यं हि भिन्नमार्गं परं मतम् ।
सेवकानां यथा लोके व्यवहारः प्रसिद्धयति ॥७॥ तथा कार्यं समर्प्यैव सर्वेषां ब्रह्मता ततः ।
गंगात्वं सर्वदोषाणां गुणदोषादिवर्णना ॥८॥ गंगात्वेन निरूप्या स्यात्तद्वदत्रापि चैव हि ॥

*tasmādādau sarvakārye sarvavastusamarpanam
dattāphāravacanam tathā ca sakalam hareḥ na grāhyamiti vākyaṁ hi bhinnamārge param matam sevakānāṁ yathā loke vyavahāraḥ prasiddhayati tathā kāryaṁ samarpyaiva sarveṣāṁ brahmatā tataḥ gaṅgātvaṁ sarvadoṣāṇāṁ guṇadoṣādivarṇanā gaṅgātvena nirūpyā syāttadvadatrāpi caiva hi*

Therefore at the start of any undertaking, everything should first be dedicated to Him. The statement that says, "It is all His and therefore cannot be used," holds no validity here and refers to another path. Just like good servants in the world are known for their selfless service, similarly here the bhakta selflessly offers herself in every undertaking and then everything becomes Godly for her. Like impure water that joins the Ganga becomes the Ganga and is no longer considered as pure or impure but as sacred Ganga, similarly, everything that is offered to God becomes God; perfectly divine. (6-8)

नवरत्नम् The Nine Jewels

Shri Vallabhacharya composed the Nine Jewels for his disciple Govinda Dube in order to remove the anxieties that were obstructing his Blessed Worship. His advice is clear: when you have dedicated yourself to Shri Krishna, there is simply nothing to worry about. Anxiety always obstructs the flow of devotion and so the recitation of this text puts the bhaktas' minds and hearts at ease.

चिन्ताकापि न कार्या निवेदितात्मभिः कदापीति । भगवानपि पुष्टिस्थो न करिष्यति लौकिकीं च गतिम् ॥९॥

cintākāpi na kāryā niveditātmabhiḥ kadāpīti bhagavānapi puṣṭistho na kariṣyati laukikīm ca gatim

Those who have dedicated their very Selves should never worry because the Blessed Lord, Who is established in grace, will never give them a mundane life. (1)

निवेदनं तु स्मर्तव्यं सर्वथा तादृशैर्जनैः ।
सर्वेश्वरश्च सर्वात्मा निजेच्छातः करिष्यति ॥१०॥

*nivedanam tu smartavyaṁ sarvathā tādrśairjanaiḥ
sarveśvarśca sarvātmā nijecchātaḥ kariṣyati*

Remember your dedication in the company of other accomplished bhaktas. The Supreme Being, Shri Krishna, the Self of all, will do as He pleases and will fulfill His bhakta's desires. (2)

सर्वेषां प्रभुसम्बन्धो न प्रत्येकमिति स्थितिः । अतोऽन्य विनियोगेऽपि चिन्ता का स्वस्य सोऽपिचेत् ॥३॥

*sarveṣāṁ prabhusambandho na pratyekamiti sthitiḥ
ato'nya viniyoge'pi cintā kā svasya so'picet*

Everything is connected to God and nothing can ever remain separate from Him. And so, if you engage in activities or connections that don't seem to be related to Him, there is no reason to worry, because they actually are. (3)

अज्ञानादथवा ज्ञानात् कृतमात्मनिवेदनम् । यैः कृष्णसात्कृत प्राणैस्तेषां का परिदेवना ॥४॥

*ajñānādathavā jñānāt kṛtamātmanivedanam
yaiḥ kṛṣṇasātkṛta prāṇaisteṣāṁ kā paridevanā*

When those who have dedicated themselves with or without proper understanding should have no concerns, then what to say of those who have established their very life-force with Krishna? (4)

तथा निवेदने चिन्ता त्याज्या श्रीपुरुषोत्तमे ।
विनियोगेऽपि सा त्याज्या समर्थो हि हरिः स्वतः ॥५॥

tathā nivedane cintā tyājyā śrī puruṣottame viniyoge'pi sā tyājyā samartho hi hariḥ svataḥ

Concerns regarding one's dedication should be given over to Shri Krishna as well as anxieties regarding any other involvements in life. These worries should be renounced because Hari Himself is totally capable of taking care of His own bhaktas. (5)

लोके स्वास्थ्यं तथा वेदे हरिस्तु न करिष्यति । पुष्टिमार्गस्थितोयस्मात्साक्षिणोभवताऽखिलाः ॥६॥

loke svāस्थ्यam tathā vede haristu na kariṣyati puṣṭimārgasthitoyasmātsākṣiṇobhavatā'khilāḥ

Shri Krishna, Who is established in grace, will not allow His bhaktas to feel at peace with themselves in the mundane world nor in the path of the Vedas. Therefore all grace-filled beings should remain mere witnesses to whatever happens. (6)

सेवाकृतिर्गुरोराज्ञा बाधनं वा हरीच्छया । अतः सेवापरं चित्तं विधायस्थीयतां सुखम् ॥७॥

*sevākṛtirgurorājñā bādhanam vā harīcchayā
ataḥ sevāparam cittam vidhāyasthīyatām sukham*

Perform seva according to the guru's instructions. If for some reason seva cannot be performed as per the guru's directions, consider this to be the wish of Hari. One should, however, keep the mind absorbed in the seva and remain happy. (7)

चित्तोद्वेगं विधायापि हरिर्यद्यत्करिष्यति ।
तथैव तस्य लीलेति मत्वा चिन्तां द्रुतं त्यजेत् ॥८॥

*cittodvegam vidhāyāpi hariryadyatkarīṣyati
tathaiva tasya līleti matvā cintām drutam tyajet*

If for some reason Hari creates a situation that makes you anxious, then understand that He does everything according to His own lila. Having understood this, you should relinquish any unrelated concerns immediately. (8)

तस्मात्सर्वात्मना नित्यं श्रीकृष्णः शरणं मम । वदद्भिरेवं सततं स्थेयमित्येव मे मतिः ॥९॥

tasmātsarvātmanā nityam śrīkṛṣṇaḥ śaraṇam mama vadadbhirevaṁ satataṁ stheyamityeva me matiḥ

Therefore, with total love, feel Krishna everywhere and continually recite, "Shri Krishna is my refuge". This is my firm conviction. (9)

अन्तःकरण प्रबोध An Appeal to My Heart

In the following text, Shri Vallabhacharya consoles his own heart. Shri Krishna has requested him to leave this world and return to Him, but the bhakti master decides to delay his divine return in order to fulfill his earthly devotional mission, to complete his commentary on Shri Krishna's lilas as depicted in the Shrimad Bhagavatam. In this appeal to his own heart, the master brilliantly reflects on his relationship with Lord Krishna.

अन्तःकरण मद्वाक्यं सावधानतया शृणु । कृष्णात्परं नास्ति दैवं वस्तुतो दोषवर्जितम् ॥१॥

antaḥkaraṇa madvākyaṁ sāvadhānatayā śṛṇu kṛṣṇātparam nāsti daivaṁ vastuto doṣavarjitam

O heart, listen carefully to my words! Besides Shri Krishna there is no flawless deva. (1)

चाण्डाली चेद्राजपत्नी जाता राज्ञा च मानिता । कदाचिदपमानेऽपि मूलतः का क्षतिर्भवेत् ॥२॥

*cāṇḍālī cedrājapatnī jātā rājñā ca mānitā
kadācidapamāne'pi mūlataḥ kā kṣatirbhavet*

If a low caste Chandali woman happens to become a queen and is honored by her king and then at some point he becomes displeased with her, she is still far better off than when she was a Chandali. (2)

समर्पणादहं पूर्वमुत्तमः किं सदा स्थितः । का ममाधमता भाव्या पश्चात्तापो यतो भवेत् ॥३॥

*samarpaṇādahaṁ pūrvamuttamaḥ kiṁ sadā sthitaḥ
kā mamādhmatā bhāvyā paścātāpo yato bhavet*

Was I always exalted before I dedicated myself to You?
Now after my dedication, have I become so fallen that I should repent? Of course not! (3)

सत्यसंकल्पतो विष्णुर्नान्यथा तु करिष्यति ।
आज्ञैव कार्या सततं स्वामिद्रोहोऽन्यथा भवेत् ॥४॥

*satyasankalpato viṣṇurnānyathā tu kariṣyati
ājñaiṣa kāryā satataṁ svāmidroho'nyathā bhavet*

I know that whatever the Blessed Lord promises always comes to be. He never acts contrary to His promise. His command should always be followed, otherwise one becomes guilty of transgressing the Master of all things. (4)

सेवकस्य तु धर्मोऽयं स्वामी स्वस्य करिष्यति । आज्ञा पूर्वं तु या जाता गंगासागरसंगमे ॥५॥

*sevakasya tu dharmo'yaṁ svāmī svasya karisyati
ājñā pūrvam tu yā jātā gaṅgāsāgarasāṅgame*

This is the duty of the follower. Know that the Blessed Lord Himself will accomplish whatever else needs to be done.
I did not follow my Lord's command to leave my body at the Ganga Sagar, where the river meets the sea. (5)

याऽपि पश्चान्मधुवने न कृतं तद्वयं मया । देहदेश परित्यागस्तृतीयो लोकगोचरः ॥६॥

*yā'pi paścānmadhuṇane na kṛtaṁ tadvayaṁ mayā
dehadeśa parityāgastrīyo lokagocaraḥ*

Nor did I obey His second command at Madhuvan near Mathura, to leave the place and return to Him. His third request for me to renounce this visible world I will surely oblige. (6)

पश्चात्तापः कथं तत्र सेवकोऽहं न चान्यथा । लौकिकप्रभुवत्कृष्णो न द्रष्टव्यः कदाचन ॥७॥

paścāttāpaḥ kathaṁ tatra sevako'haṁ na cānyathā laukikaprabhuvatkṛṣṇo na draṣṭavyaḥ kadācana

Why should I lament now? I am His follower and nothing else. Krishna should never be seen as a worldly being. (7)

सर्वं समर्पितं भक्त्या कृतार्थोऽसि सुखी भव ।
प्रौढापि दुहिता यद्वत् स्नेहान्न प्रेष्यते वरे ॥८॥

sarvaṁ samarpitaṁ bhaktyā kṛtārtho'si sukhī bhava praudhā'pi duhitā yadvat snehānna preṣyate vare

O heart, you have already dedicated everything to Him with devotion. You have accomplished your goal, so be content. If a father does not send his married daughter to her husband because of his excessive affection for her, he displeases her husband. (8)

तथा देहे न कर्तव्यं वरस्तुष्यति नान्यथा ।
लोकवच्चेत् स्थितिर्मे स्यात्किं स्यादिति विचारय ॥९॥

tathā dehe na kartavyaṁ varastuṣyati nānyathā lokavaccet sthitirme syātkiṁ syāditi vicāraya

Similarly, my husband, Shri Krishna, will not be pleased with me if I do not follow my bodily duty and return to Him. I should consider my divine situation in terms of the ways of the world; that a bride should go to her husband and no where else. If I do not act accordingly with Shri Krishna, tell me, where will I stand? (9)

अशक्ये हरिरेवास्ति मोहं मा गाः कथञ्चन । इति श्रीकृष्णदासस्य वल्लभस्य हितं वचः ॥१०॥

*aśakye harirevāsti moham mā gāḥ kathamcana
iti śrīkṛṣṇadāsasya vallabhasya hitam vacaḥ*

Let there be no confusion here. In the impossible, Hari alone is capable. In this way, I, Shri Krishna's beloved follower, have given my heart some good guidance. (10)

चित्तं प्रति यदाकर्ण्य भक्तो निश्चिन्ततां व्रजेत् ॥११॥

cittam prati yadākarṇya bhakto niścintatām vrajet

If a bhakta listens to these words, she will become free of any concern. (11)

विवेकधैर्याश्रयः

Wisdom, Perserverance and Refuge

Wisdom, perseverance and refuge are the three main devotional ingredients that create and maintain the firm mood of devotion. In this teaching, Shri Vallabhacharya gives us a practical guide that is filled with wise advice on how to live in the world, deal with obstructions and maintain a rich devotional life. In a discreet way, this work also addresses the higher devotional states that flourish between the Beloved and His loved ones.

विवेकधैर्ये सततं रक्षणीये तथाश्रयः ।

विवेकस्तु हरिः सर्वं निजेच्छातः करिष्यति ॥१२॥

*vivekadhairya satatam rakṣaṇīye tathāśrayaḥ
vivekastu hariḥ sarvaṁ nijecchātaḥ kariṣyati*

Always protect your discrimination and perseverance and carefully nourish divine refuge. True wisdom is seeing that Beloved Hari will accomplish everything according to His own will. (1)

प्रार्थिते वा ततः किं स्यात्स्वाम्यभिप्राय संशयात् ।

सर्वत्र तस्य सर्वं हि सर्वसामर्थ्यमेव च ॥१२॥

*prārthite vā tataḥ kim syātsvāmyabhiprāya saṁśayāt
sarvatra tasya sarvaṁ hi sarvasāmarthyamev ca*

What is the use of prayer? Why request something from Him? This happens because there is a doubt in the intention of His perfect plan. Hari is everywhere and He is everything. He is compelling and potent. (2)

The Teachings of Shri Vallabhacharya

अभिमानश्च संत्याज्यः स्वाम्यधीनत्वभावनात् । विशेषतश्चेदाज्ञा स्यादन्तःकरण गोचरः ॥३॥

*abhimānaśca santyājyaḥ svāmyadhīnatvabhāvanāt
viśeṣataścedajñā syādantaḥkaraṇaḥ gocaraḥ*

The bhava that arises from the realization of being under Hari's control cleanses the lover of false pride. Then when there is a special command, the Beloved enters the heart. (3)

तदा विशेषगत्यादि भाव्यं भिन्नं तु दैहिकात् । आपद्गत्यादिकार्येषु हठस्त्याज्यश्च सर्वथा ॥४॥

*tadā viśeṣagatyādi bhāvyaṁ bhinnam tu daihikāt
āpadgatyādikāryeṣu haṭhastyājyaśca sarvathā*

In that extraordinary circumstance, the bhava that is intuited is never worldly; it is separate from the concerns of the physical body. Whatever the difficult circumstance, never be uncompromising. (4)

अनाग्रहश्च सर्वत्र धर्माधर्माग्रदर्शनम् । विवेकोऽयं समाख्यातो धैर्यं तु विनिरूप्यते ॥५॥

anāgrahaśca sarvatra dharmādharmāgra darśanam viveko'yaṁ samākhyāto dhairyaṁ tu vinirūpyate

Without being obstinate, maintain a keen sense of awareness in all situations and recognize what is dharma and what is not. This is my explanation of wisdom and now I will speak of perseverance. (5)

Wisdom, Perseverance and Refuge

त्रिदुःखसहनं धैर्यमामृतेः सर्वतः सदा । तक्रवद्देहवद्भाव्यं जडवत् गोपभार्यवत् ॥६॥

triduhkha sahanam dhairyamāmṛteḥ sarvataḥ sadā takravaddēhavadbhāvyaṁ jadavat gopabhāryavat

Perseverance is to always endure the three types of pain (mundane, spiritual and divine) until death. To accomplish this, understand the body to be like buttermilk that remains unaffected even after it has been beaten and robbed of its butter. Also comprehend the spiritual pains of king Bharat who underwent three births before he became enlightened, as well as the divine pangs of separation from Krishna that the Gopis of Vrindavan experienced. (6)

प्रतीकारो यदृच्छातः सिद्धश्चेन्नाग्रही भवेत् । भार्यादीनां तथान्येषामसतश्चाक्रमं सहेत् ॥७॥

*pratīkāro yadṛcchātaḥ siddhaścennāgrahī bhavet
bhāryādīnaṁ tathānyeṣāmasatścākramaṁ sahet*

When there is alleviation and when things work out because of His wish, do not resist the accomplishment. Endure false attacks from your spouse, family members and other people. (7)

स्वयमिन्द्रियकार्याणि कायवाङ्मनसा त्यजेत् । अशूरेणापि कर्तव्यं स्वस्यासामर्थ्यं भावनात् ॥८॥

*svayamindriyakāryāṇi kāyavāṅmanasā tyajet
aśūreṇāpi kartavyaṁ svasyāsāmarthyā bhāvanāt*

Sense activities that are not connected to Hari should be renounced with mind, body and speech. Even if one is powerless, renunciation should be done understanding that the power to do so is not one's own, but His. (8)

अशक्ये हरिरेवास्ति सर्वमाश्रयतो भवेत् । एतत्सहनमत्रोक्तमाश्रयोऽतो निरूप्यते ॥६॥

*āśakye harirevāsti sarvamāśrayato bhavet
etatsahanamatroktamāśrayato nirūpyate*

In the powerless position, remember that Hari is everything and that entirety is attained through refuge. Thus I have spoken of fortitude and now I will introduce the third teaching which is refuge in Hari. (9)

ऐहिके पारलोके च सर्वथा शरणं हरिः ।
दुःखहानौ तथा पापे भये कामाद्यपूरणे ॥१०॥
भक्तद्रोहे भक्त्यभावे भक्तैश्चातिक्रमे कृते । अशक्ये वा सुशक्ये वा सर्वथा शरणं हरिः ॥११॥

aihike pārloke ca sarvathā śaraṇam hariḥ duḥkhānau tathā pāpe bhaye kāmādyapūraṇe bhaktadrohe bhaktyabhāve bhaktaiścātikrame kṛte aśakye vā suśakye vā sarvathā śaraṇam hariḥ

In this world, or in any other and in every situation, Hari is the refuge. In pain and loss, in sin or in fear, in the non-obtainment of the object of desire, in anger towards other bhaktas, in the absence of devotion, in the case of other bhaktas being aggressive with you, in the powerless state, as well as in the position of power and in every condition, remember that Hari is the refuge. (10-11)

अहंकारकृते चैव पोष्यपोषणरक्षणे ।
पोष्यातिक्रमणे चैव तथातेवास्यतिक्रमे ॥१२॥
अलौकिक मनः सिद्धौ सर्वथा शरणं हरिः । एवं चित्ते सदा भाव्यं वाचा च परिकीर्तयेत् ॥१३॥

*ahamkarakṛte caiva poṣyapoṣaṇarakṣaṇe poṣyātikramāṇe caiva tathantevāsyatikrame alaukika manaḥ siddhau sarvathā śaraṇam hariḥ
evam citte sadā bhāvyam vācā ca parikīrtayet*

In the creation of false pride, in the protection and nourishment of those who need sustenance or in violations from those who are being nourished as well as in the transgressions of students or even in the perfection of the divine heart-mind, always take Hari's refuge in every situation. Maintain this sensibility firmly in the mind and praise it with the voice. (12-13)

अन्यस्य भजनं तत्र स्वतोगमनमेव च । प्रार्थना कार्यमात्रेऽपि तथाऽन्यत्र विवर्जयेत् ॥१४॥

*anyasya bhajanam tatra svatogamanameva ca
prārthanā kāryamātre'pi tathā'nyatra vivarjayet*

It is also forbidden to go and worship another or to pray to another for any of your work to be done. (14)

अविश्वासो न कर्त्तव्यः सर्वथा बाधकस्तु सः । ब्रह्मास्त्रचातकौ भाव्यौ प्राप्तं सेवेत निर्ममः ॥१५॥

*aviśvāso na kartavyaḥ sarvathā bādhakastu saḥ
brahmāstracātakau bhāvyaau prāptam seveta nirmamaḥ*

Never lose faith. If you do, it will impede your every situation. Understand lack of faith from the story of Hanuman who broke free from the powerful Brahmastra weapon because his captors lost faith in it. Understand faith from the tale of the chataka bird who forsakes all waters except for rain drops from certain clouds. Perform seva, His pleasing worship with what is obtained and without false sense of ownership. (15)

यथाकथंचित् कार्याणि कुर्यादुच्चावचान्यपि । किं वा प्रोक्तेनबहुना शरणं भावयेद्धरिम् ।।१६।।

*yathākathañcit kāryāṇi kuryaduccāvacānyapi
kiṁ vā proktena bahunā śaraṇaṁ bhāvayeddhariṁ*

In all undertakings, whether they be high or low, religious or worldly, maintain the bhava that Hari is my refuge. What more to say? (16)

एवमाश्रयणं प्रोक्तं सर्वेषां सर्वदा हितम् । कलौ भक्त्यादिमार्गा हि दुःसाध्या इति मे मतिः ।।१७।।

*evamāśrayaṇaṁ proktaṁ sarveṣāṁ sarvadā hitam
kalau bhaktyādimārgā hi duḥsādhyā iti me matiḥ*

Thus, I have spoken of Hari refuge that is at all times beneficial to all. In my opinion, bhakti and other practices are difficult to perform in this age of struggle so therefore one should take to the path of refuge. (17)

कृष्णाश्रयः Refuge in Krishna

In this teaching, Shri Vallabhacharya surveys the contrary conditions that prevailed in India some five hundred years ago and advises his followers to seek Krishna refuge in every condition. It was written for his follower Bula Mishra in about 1514 A.D. Bhaktas daily recite this text while in seva to help establish their total shelter in Krishna.

सर्वमार्गेषु नष्टेषु कलौ च खलधर्मिणि । पाषंडप्रचुरे लोके कृष्ण एव गतिर्मम ।।११।।

*sarvamārgeṣu naṣṭeṣu kalau ca khaladharmini
paṣaṇḍapracure loke kṛṣṇa eva gatirmama*

All proper paths have been destroyed in this age of struggle. The practitioners of dharma have become wicked and hypocrisy is rampant. Krishna alone is my refuge. (1)

म्लेच्छाक्रांतेषु देशेषु पापैकनिलयेषु च । सत्पीडाव्यग्र लोकेषु कृष्ण एव गतिर्मम ।।१२।।

*mlecchākrānteṣu deṣeṣu papaikanilayeṣu ca
satpīḍāvyagra lokeṣu kṛṣṇa eva gatirmama*

India has been invaded by barbarians and has become an abode full of impurity where people are disturbed because of the suffering of the pure-hearted ones. Krishna alone is my refuge. (2)

गंगादितीर्थवर्येषु दुष्टैरेवावृतेष्विह । तिरोहिताधिदैवेषु कृष्ण एव गतिर्मम ।।३।।

*gaṅgādītīrthavar̥yeṣu duṣṭairevāvṛteṣvīh
tirohitādhidaiveṣu kṛṣṇa eva gatirmama*

The Ganga and other holy places have been surrounded by wicked people. The presiding devas have hidden themselves. Krishna alone is my refuge. (3)

अहंकार विमूढेषु सत्सु पापानुवर्तिषु । लाभपूजार्थयत्नेषु कृष्ण एव गतिर्मम ।।४।।

*ahaṁkāra vimūḍheṣu satsu pāpānuvartīṣu
lābhapūjāarthayatneṣu kṛṣṇa eva gatirmama*

Even pious people are bewildered by their own egos and follow sinful activity. Their efforts in worship are for personal gain. Krishna alone is my refuge. (4)

अपरिज्ञाननष्टेषु मंत्रेष्वव्रतयोगिषु । तिरोहितार्थदैवेषु कृष्ण एव गतिर्मम ।।५।।

*aparijñānanaṣṭeṣu manṭreṣvavratayogiṣu
tirohitāarthadeiveṣu kṛṣṇa eva gatirmama*

True knowledge has been lost along with the proper use of mantras, fasts and yoga. Inner meanings and the devas have all become concealed. Krishna alone is my refuge. (5)

नानावादविनष्टेषु सर्वकर्मव्रतादिषु । पाषण्डैक प्रयत्नेषु कृष्ण एव गतिर्मम ।।६।।

*nanāvādavinaṣṭeṣu sarvakarmavratādiṣu
pāṣaṇḍaika prayatneṣu kṛṣṇa eva gatirmama*

Many different false teachings have destroyed all the pious karmas and religious observances. People's spiritual undertakings are filled with hypocrisy. Krishna alone is my refuge. (6)

अजामिलादि दोषाणां नाशकोऽनुभवे स्थितः । ज्ञापिताखिल माहात्म्यः कृष्ण एव गतिर्मम ।।७।।

*ajāmilādi doṣāṇāṁ nāśako'nubhave sthitah
jñāpitākhil māhātmyah kṛṣṇa eva gatirmama*

Bhaktas know Him as the One who removed the impurities of sinners like Ajamila and others and He has thus revealed His total eminence. Krishna alone is my refuge. (7)

प्राकृताः सकला देवाः गणितानंदकं बृहत् ।
पूर्णानन्दो हरिस्तस्मात् कृष्ण एव गतिर्मम ।।८।।

prākṛtāḥ sakalā devāḥ gaṇitānandakah bṛhat pūrṇānando haristasmāt kṛṣṇa eva gatirmama

All the gods are material. Even formless Brahman's bliss is qualified. Hari alone is replete with perfect joy. Krishna alone is my refuge. (8)

विवेकधैर्यं भक्त्यादिरहितस्य विशेषतः । पापासक्तस्य दीनस्य कृष्ण एव गतिर्मम ।।९।।

vivekadhairya bhaktyādirahitasya viśeṣataḥ pāpāsaktasya dīnasya kṛṣṇa eva gatirmama

I am totally void of wisdom, patience, devotion and other virtues. I am attached to sin but I am humble. Krishna alone is my refuge. (9)

सर्वसामर्थ्यसहितः सर्वत्रैवाखिलार्थकृत् । शरणस्थसमुद्धारं कृष्णं विज्ञापयाम्यहम् ।।१०।।

sarvasāmarthyasahitaḥ sarvatraivākhilārthakṛt
śaraṇasthasamuddhāraṁ kṛṣṇaṁ vijñāpayāmyaham

I pray to You Krishna, Who is full of all powers and fulfills the bhakta's desires in every circumstance. You uplift those who take Your shelter. (10)

कृष्णाश्रयमिदं स्तोत्रं यः पठेत्कृष्णसन्निधौ । तस्याश्रयोभवेत्कृष्ण इति श्रीवल्लभोऽब्रवीत् ।।११।।

kṛṣṇāśrayamidam stotraṁ yaḥ paṭhetkṛṣṇasannidhau
tasyāśrayobhavetkṛṣṇa iti śrīvallabho'bravīt

Whoever recites this prayer in Krishna's proximity attains His shelter. Thus says Shri Vallabhacharya. (11)

चतुःश्लोकी Four Verses

Shri Vallabhacharya gave this short teaching to Rana Vyasa and Bhagavandas Sanchora. Each line of the text gives us a grace-filled interpretation of the four pursuits of life: dharma, wealth, desire and liberation. His worship is our dharma and our wealth is Krishna Himself. Our desires are fulfilled when He lives in the heart and to always serve and remember Him is liberation. In the Master's words...

सर्वदा सर्वभावेन भजनीयो ब्रजाधिपः । स्वस्यायमेव धर्मो हि नान्यः क्वापि कदाचन ।।१।।

sarvadā sarvabhāvena bhajanīyo vrajādhīpaḥ
svasyāyameva dharmohi nānyaḥ kvāpi kadācana

The Lord of Vraja is always worthy of worship with every bhava. That is your only dharma. There is never another one anywhere. (1)

एवं सदा स्म कर्तव्यं स्वयमेव करिष्यति ।
प्रभुः सर्वसमर्थो हि ततो निश्चिततां व्रजेत् ।।२।।

evaṁ sadā sma kartavyaṁ svayameva kariṣyati
prabhuḥ sarvasamartho hi tato niścintatām vrajet

This is always your duty and Shri Krishna Himself will do the rest, for He is all-powerful. Therefore go and live without concern. (2)

यदि श्रीगोकुलाधीशो धृतः सर्वात्मना हृदि । ततः किमपरं ब्रूहि लौकिकैर्वैदिकैरपि ॥३॥

*yadi śrīgokulādhīśo dṛtaḥ sarvātmanā hṛdi
tataḥ kimaparāṁ brūhi laukikairvaidikairapi*

If the Lord of Gokul, Shri Krishna, fills your heart with total love, then nothing promised in the world or in the Vedas can exceed that. (3)

अतः सर्वात्मना शश्वद्गोकुलेश्वर पादयोः । स्मरणं भजनं चापि न त्याज्यमिति मे मतिः ॥४॥

*ataḥ sarvātmanā śaśvadgokuleśvar pādayoḥ
smaraṇaṁ bhajanaṁ cāpi na tyājyamiti me matiḥ*

And so always maintain this state of total love for Krishna. Serve and remember His lotus feet. My belief is that this view should never be foresaken. (4)

भक्तिवर्धिनी How to Increase Devotion

This teaching was given by Shri Vallabhacharya to Purushottam Joshi in about 1496 A.D. This text is an essential bhakti empowerment and gives devotional solutions for various situations that arise in a practitioner's life. The way to attain love for Shri Krishna, divine attachment to Him and ultimately addiction to Him is explained in this writing.

यथा भक्तिः प्रवृद्धा स्यात्तथोपायो निरूप्यते ।

बीज भावे दृढे तु स्यात् त्यागात् श्रवण कीर्तनात् ॥१॥

*yathā bhaktiḥ pravṛddhā syattathopāyo nirūpyate
bīja bhāve dṛḍhe tu syāt tyāgāt śravaṇa kīrtanāt*

I will now explain the way to increase bhakti. When the seed of bhakti becomes firm, enhance it by renouncing what is unrelated and by listening to devotional subjects and singing His praises. (1)

बीजदाढ्यप्रकारस्तु गृहे स्थित्वा स्वधर्मतः ।

अव्यावृत्तो भजेत्कृष्णं पूजया श्रवणादिभिः ॥२॥

*bījadāṛdhyaprakārastu gr̥he sthitvā svadharmataḥ
avyāvṛtto bhajetkr̥ṣṇaṁ pūjayā śravaṇādibhiḥ*

The way to strengthen the seed of blessed devotion is to reside at home and to follow your own dharma. If you are free from all other occupations, worship Shri Krishna lovingly. Serve him with song, perform devotional listening and undertake other exalted activities. (2)

व्यावृत्तोऽपि हरौ चित्तं श्रवणादौ न्यसेत्सदा । ततः प्रेम तथासक्तिर्व्यसनं च यदा भवेत् ॥३॥

*vyāvṛtto'pi harau cittam śravaṇādau nyasetsadā
tataḥ prema tathāsaktirvyasanam ca yadā bhavet*

If you have worldly obligations, then fix the mind on Hari by always listening to His praises or by engaging in other devotional activities. Then the blessed states of love, attachment and finally addiction to the Blessed One will follow. (3)

बीजं तदुच्यते शास्त्रे दृढं यन्नापि नश्यति ।
स्नेहाद्रागविनाशः स्यादासक्त्या स्याद्गृहारुचिः ॥४॥
गृहस्थानां बाधकत्वमनात्मत्वं च भासते ।
यदा स्याद्व्यसनं कृष्णे कृतार्थः स्यात्तदैव हि ॥५॥

*bījam taducyate śāstre dṛḍham yannāpi naśyati snehādrāgavināśaḥ syādāsaktyā syādgrhāruचिः grhasthānām bādhakatvamanātmatvaṁ ca bhāstate
yadā syādvyaasanam kṛṣṇe kṛtārthaḥ syāttadaiva hi*

In the blessed state of addiction, the devotional seed becomes perfectly established. The sacred writings tell us that then it can never be destroyed. Divine love removes worldly hankering. When you become attached to the Beloved, there is no taste for the worldly home and the bhakta sees it as unconnected to one's true self. When one becomes totally addicted to Shri Krishna and can no longer live without Him, that blessed one has attained devotional excellence. (4-5)

तादृशस्यापि सततं गृहस्थानं विनाशकम् । त्यागं कृत्वा यतेद्यस्तु तदर्थार्थकमानसः ॥६॥

*tādṛśasyāpi satataṁ grhasthānam vināśakam
tyāgaṁ kṛtvā yatedyastu tadarthārthaikamānasah*

The devotionally accomplished soul will always experience the worldly home as destructive to devotion. Renunciation is only so that one can focus the mind and heart. (6)

लभते सुदृढां भक्तिं सर्वतोऽप्यधिकां पराम् । त्यागे बाधकभूयस्त्वं दुःसंसर्गात्तथान्नतः ॥७॥

*labhate sudṛḍhāṁ bhaktim sarvato'pyadhikāṁ parām
tyāge bādhakabhūyastvaṁ duḥsansargāttathānnataḥ*

The attainment of firm devotion is superior to and beyond anything else. If there is premature renunciation, one runs into many obstructions such as bad association and unoffered, impure food. (7)

अतः स्थेयं हरिस्थाने तदीयैः सह तत्परैः । अदूरे विप्रकर्षे वा यथा चित्तं न दुष्यति ॥८॥

*ataḥ stheyam haristhāne tadīyaiḥ saha tatparaiḥ
adūre viprakarṣe vā yathā cittam na duṣyati*

And so, one should live in a place that is sacred to Shri Hari and be focused on having association with other bhaktas who have become Hari's dear ones. One should maintain a balance between living near other bhaktas and keeping a reasonable distance so that the mind will never experience any negativity. (8)

सेवायां वा कथायां वा यस्यासक्तिर्दृढा भवेत् । यावज्जीवं तस्य नाशो न क्वापीति मतिर्मम ॥९॥

*sevāyām vā kathāyām vā yasyāsaktirdṛdhā bhavet
yāvajjīvaṁ tasya nāśo na kvāpīti matirmama*

If one is attached to Shri Krishna's seva or to hearing and reciting His names, stories and teachings, I believe that as long as that bhakta lives, her devotion will never be destroyed. (9)

बाधसंभावनायां तु नैकांते वास इष्यते ।

हरिस्तु सर्वतो रक्षां करिष्यति न संशयः ।।१०।।

*bādhasambhāvanāyām tu naikānte vāsa iśyate
haristu sarvato rakṣāṁ kariṣyati na saṁśayaḥ*

One should not live in isolation because of the possibility of obstructions. Without a doubt Hari will protect the bhakta in every way. (10)

इत्येवं भगवच्छास्त्रं गूढतत्त्वं निरूपितम् ।

य एतत्समधीयीत तस्यापि स्याद्दृढा रतिः ।।११।।

*ityevaṁ bhagavacchāstram gūḍhatatvaṁ nirūpitam
ya etatsamadhīyīta tasyāpi syāddṛdhā ratih*

And so I have revealed the secret essence of the Blessed Lord's teachings. Those who grasp them will have firm devotion. (11)

जलभेदः

Differences in Waters

In this most interesting teaching, Shri Vallabhacharya gives insight into the different nature of people who speak about God and then compares them to various types of water. As we will see, reciters as well as water hold many different flavours and attributes. When one can correctly judge what he or she is listening to, then the ability to imbibe only pure teachings is greatly increased.

नमस्कृत्य हरिं वक्ष्ये तदगुणानां विभेदकान् ।

भावान् विंशतिधा भिन्नान् सर्वसन्देहवारकान् ।।११।।

*namaskṛtya harim vakṣye tadguṇānām vibhedakān
bhāvaṁ vimśatidhā bhinnān sarvasaṁdehavārakān*

Having bowed to Hari, I will now remove all doubts with my explanation of His different attributes by describing the nature of twenty different types of speakers. (1)

गुणभेदास्तु तावन्तो यावन्तो हि जले मताः ।

गायकाः कूपसंकाशा गन्धर्वा इति विश्रुताः ।।१२।।

*guṇabhedāstu tāvanto yāvanto hi jale matāḥ
gāyakāḥ kūpasamkāśā gandharvā iti viśrutāḥ*

There are as many different types of speakers as there is water. The first speaker I will mention I call Gayakas. The scriptures call them Gandharvas or celestial singers. They are like wells. (2)

कूपभेदास्तु यावन्तस्तावन्तस्तेपि सम्मताः । कुल्या पौराणिकाः प्रोक्ताः पारम्पर्ययुता भुवि ॥३॥

*kūpabhedāstu yāvantastāvantaste'pi sammatāḥ
kulyāḥ paurāṇikāḥ proktāḥ pārampariyayutā bhuvi*

Some are sweet while some are brackish and like wells, they are of various types. Then there are the reciters of Puranic lore. It is their family tradition. (3)

क्षेत्रप्रविष्टास्ते चापि संसारोत्पत्तिहेतवः । वेश्यादिसहिता मत्ता गायका गर्तसंज्ञिताः ॥४॥

*kṣetrapraviṣṭāste cāpi saṁsārotpattihetavaḥ
veśyādisahitā mattā gāyakā gartasamjñitāḥ*

I consider them to be like canals, but when their waters are diverted into fields, their flow creates worldliness. The next type of singers are those who are intoxicated and associate with prostitutes. They are like stagnant water holes. (4)

जलार्थमेव गर्तास्तु नीचा गानोपजीविनः ।
ह्रदास्तु पण्डिताः प्रोक्ता भगवच्छास्त्रतत्पराः ॥५॥

*jalārthameva gartāstu nīcā gānopajīvināḥ
hradāstu paṇḍitāḥ proktā bhagavacchāstratatparāḥ*

Lowly singers who only recite for money are like sewer water. Then there are pundits who are always intent upon reciting the Lord's glories as revealed in the Bhagavat. (5)

सन्देहवारकास्तत्र सूदा गंभीरमानसाः । सरःकमलसम्पूर्णाः प्रेमयुक्तास्तथा बुधाः ॥६॥

*sandehavārakāstatra sudā gambhīramānasāḥ
saraḥkamalasampūrṇāḥ premayuktāstathā budhāḥ*

They are like deep water. Then there are some speakers who can remove the doubts of others. They have profound minds and hearts and I compare them to pure sweet and nectar-like water. Those who are brilliant and full of love are like lakes brimming with lotuses. (6)

अल्पश्रुताः प्रेमयुक्ता वेशन्ताः परिकीर्तिताः । कर्मशुद्धाः पल्वलानि तथाल्पश्रुतिभक्तयः ॥७॥

*alpaśrutāḥ premayuktā veśantāḥ parikīrtitāḥ
karmaśuddhaḥ palvalāni tathālpasrutibhaktayaḥ*

Those who have a little bit of knowledge and love I call ponds. Others who perform good deeds, but have very limited devotion and understanding are like water-holes. (7)

योगध्यानादिसंयुक्ता गुणा वर्ष्वाः प्रकीर्तिताः । तपोज्ञानादिभावेन स्वेदजास्तु प्रकीर्तिताः ॥८॥

*yogadhyānādisamyuktā guṇā varṣyāḥ prakīrtitāḥ
tapojñānādibhāvena svedajāstu prakīrtitāḥ*

Those who perform yoga, meditation and other related practices I refer to as rain water. Those who trouble themselves with austerities and have a bit of knowledge are like perspiration. (8)

अलौकिकेन ज्ञानेन ये तु प्रोक्ता हरेर्गुणाः । कादाचित्काः शब्दगम्याः पतच्छब्दाः प्रकीर्तिताः ॥९॥

alaukikena jñānena ye tu proktā harerguṇāḥ kādācitkāḥ śabdagamyaḥ patacchabdāḥ prakīrtitāḥ

Sometimes you find a speaker with divine insight who speaks of Hari's divine attributes. That person's words are like a waterfall. (9)

देवाद्युपासनोद्भूताः पृष्ठा भूमेरिवोदगताः ।
साधनादिप्रकारेण नवधा भक्तिमार्गतः ॥१०॥
प्रेमपूर्या स्फुरद्धर्माः स्यन्दमानाः प्रकीर्तिताः ।
यादृशास्तादृशाः प्रोक्ता वृद्धिक्षयविवर्जिताः ॥११॥
स्थावरास्ते समाख्याता मर्यादैकप्रतिष्ठिताः । अनेकजन्मसंसिद्धा जन्मप्रभृति सर्वदा ॥१२॥

*devādyupāsanodbhūtāḥ pṛṣṭvā bhumerivodgatāḥ

yādrśāstādrśāḥ proktā vṛddhikṣayavivarjitāḥ sthāvarāste samākhyātā maryādaikapratisthitāḥ
anekajanmasmsiddhā janmaprabhṛti sarvadā*

Those who worship the material devas are like dew that appears to have sprung from the earth. By various practices, including the nine-fold devotional path of hearing, remembering, singing etc, a person can become full of love and bright with God's dharma. I call such a blessed one a flowing spring. Those similar to the speakers I have just mentioned who neither grow nor shrink, but remain firmly situated on the path of law, I compare to still water. Then there are those who have received the fruits of their good and bad actions for lifetimes. (10-12)

संगादिगुणदोषाभ्यां वृद्धिक्षययुता भुवि । निरन्तरोदगमयुता नद्यस्ते परिकीर्तिताः ॥१३॥

*saṅgādiguṇadoṣābhyāṁ vṛddhikṣayayutā bhuvi
nirantarodgamayutā nadyaste parikīrtitāḥ*

In this world they find both good and bad association from which they sometimes profit and sometimes lose. Such souls are always on the move. I call them streams. (13)

एतादृशाः स्वतन्त्राश्चेत् सिन्धवः परिकीर्तिताः । पूर्णा भगवदीया ये शेषव्यासाग्निमारुताः ॥१४॥
जडनारदमैत्राद्यास्ते समुद्राः प्रकीर्तिताः । लोकवेदगुणैर्मिश्र भावेनैके हरेर्गुणान् ॥१५॥

*etādrśāḥ svatantrāścet sindhavaḥ parikīrtitāḥ

jaḍanāradamaitrādyāste samudrāḥ prakīrtitāḥ lokavedaguṇairmiśra bhāvenaike harerguṇān*

Similar to them are other singers who are free of binding karmas. They are large rivers like the Indus. Then there are those who are great devotees, like Shesh, Vyasa, Vayu, Jadabharata, Narada, Maitreya and other sages. I refer to them all as oceans. These ocean-like singers praise Blessed Hari with different moods. Their praise is mixed with the virtues of the world and Vedas. (14-15)

वर्णयन्ति समुद्रास्ते क्षाराद्याः षट् प्रकीर्तिताः । गुणातीततया शुद्धान् सच्चिदानन्दरूपिणः ॥१६॥

*varṇayanti samudrāste kṣārādyāḥ ṣaṭ prakīrtitāḥ
guṇātītatayā śuddhān saccidānandarūpiṇaḥ*

They are named after the six oceans of salt, spirit, ghee, milk, curds and nectar. The wise bhaktas praise Hari as pure, beyond the material realms and full of truth consciousness and bliss. (16)

सर्वानेव गुणान्विष्णोर्वर्णयन्ति विचक्षणाः ।
तेऽमृतोदाः समाख्यातास्तद्वाक्पानं सुदुर्लभम् ॥१७॥

*sarvāṇeva guṇānvīṣṇorvarṇayanti vicakṣaṇāḥ
te'mṛtodāḥ samākhyātāstadvākpānaṁ sudurlabham*

They praise all of His divine virtues. Such speakers are like an ocean of nectar. It is rare to hear their words. (17)

तादृशानां क्वचिद्वाक्यं दूतानामिव वर्णितम् । अजामिलाकर्णनवद् बिन्दुपानं प्रकीर्तितम् ।।१८।।

tādrśānām kvacidvākyaṁ dūtānāmiva varṇitam
ajāmilākarnanavad bindupānaṁ prakīrtitam

Then sometimes we can hear the words of Vishnu's messengers. Ajamila heard them when the messengers of death tried to take him away. Their words are like drops of nectar. (18)

रागाज्ञानादिभावानां सर्वथा नाशनं यदा । तदा लेहनमित्युक्तं स्वानन्दोदगमकारणम् ।।१९।।

rāgaññānādibhāvnām sarvathā nāśanam yadā
tadā lehanamityuktam svānandodgamakāraṇam

When worldly passion, ignorance and other mundane moods are forever destroyed and one experiences the joy of the Inner Self, that I call true taste. (19)

उद्धृतोदकवत्सर्वे पतितोदकवत्तथा । उक्तातिरिक्तवाक्यानि फलं चापि तथा ततः ।।२०।।

uddhṛtodakavatsarve patitodakavattathā
uktātiriktavākyaṇi phalaṁ cāpi tathā tataḥ

Different from all other types of reciters are the speakers who are similar to water in a vessel or water that has spilled to the ground. Their speech corresponds to the type of water vessel or to the place the water has spilled. They are never exalted speakers. (20)

इति जीवेन्द्रियगता नानाभावं गता भुवि । रूपतः फलतश्चैव गुणा विष्णोर्निरूपिताः ।।२१।।

iti jivendriyagatā nānābhāvaṁ gatā bhuvi
rūpataḥ phalataścaiva guṇā viṣṇornirūpitāḥ

And so the Blessed Lord's qualities have been explained as they arise in this world and create different states of mind and heart in people's souls and senses. By using examples of different types of water, I have revealed their various natures and the rewards the speakers receive. (21)

पञ्चपद्यानि

Five Lines and Five Listeners

Having explained the different types of speakers, here is a description of five types of listeners. One of the main devotional practices is listening and Shri Vallabhacharya explains to us its different effects upon the bhaktas. Comprehension that creates an enlightened response is the fruit of hearing.

श्रीकृष्णरसविक्षिप्त मानसा रतिवर्जिताः ।

अनिर्वृता लोकवेदे मुख्यास्ते श्रवणोत्सुकाः ॥१॥

*śrīkṛṣṇarasavikṣipta mānasā rativarjitāḥ
anirvṛtā lokavede mukhyāste śravaṇotsukāḥ*

The best of all inspired listeners are those whose minds and hearts are totally immersed into Shri Krishna's loving nectar. They only embrace divine love and have no taste for any worldly or Vedic pleasures. (1)

विविक्लमनसो ये तु भगवत्स्मृति विह्वलाः ।

अर्थेकनिष्ठास्ते चापि मध्यमाः श्रवणोत्सुकाः ॥२॥

*viklinnamanaso ye tu bhagavatsmṛti vihvalāḥ
arthaikaniṣṭhāste cāpi madhyamāḥ śravaṇotsukāḥ*

The intermediate group of devotionally inspired listeners are overwhelmed when they remember their Beloved Lord. Their hearts melt, but they listen with underlying desire for liberation or other spiritual fruit. (2)

निःसन्दिग्धं कृष्णतत्त्वं सर्वभावेन ये विदुः ।

ते त्वावेशात्तु विकला निरोधाद्वा न चान्यथा ॥३॥

*niḥsandigdham kṛṣṇatattvaṁ sarvabhāvena ye viduḥ
te tvāveśāttu vikalā nirodhādvā nā cānyathā*

Other listeners know Shri Krishna's essence beyond a doubt and with all of their devotional feelings. They are overwhelmed with devotion only when they are possessed by Him or when they fall under His divine control, but at no other time. (3)

पूर्णभावेन पूर्णार्थाः कदाचिन्न तु सर्वदा ।

अन्यासक्तास्तु ये केचिदधमाः परिकीर्तिताः ॥४॥

*pūrṇabhāvena pūrṇārthāḥ kadācinn tu sarvadā
anyāsaktāstu ye kecidadhamāḥ parikīrtitāḥ*

Then there are those who sometimes become full of divine mood and at that time they attain their devotional purpose. However, this is not their constant state. They sometimes become distracted by attachments to worldly things. They are the lowest type of listeners. (4)

अनन्यमनसो मर्त्या उत्तमाः श्रवणादिषु ।

देशकालद्रव्यकर्तृ मन्त्रकर्म प्रकारतः ॥५॥

*ananyamanaso martyā uttamāḥ śravaṇādiṣu
deśakāladravyakartṛ mantrakarma prakārataḥ*

Finally there are those mortals who are perfectly focused on the Blessed One. Their devotion is never disturbed by location, time, wealth, occurrence, mantra or karma. I consider them to be the best listeners. (5)

संन्यासनिर्णय

My Conclusions on Renunciation

How much to renounce, when to renounce, what to renounce and most importantly, what is real renunciation? Shri Vallabhacharya answered these questions for his disciple Narahari Sanyasi in the teaching that follows. In the Path of Grace, renunciation is strictly for the experience of divine love and can be done without stepping outside of the home. A thorough study of this text will remove all doubts concerning what to leave and what to gain.

पश्चात्ताप निवृत्त्यर्थं परित्यागो विचार्यते ।
स मार्गाद्वितये प्रोक्तो भक्तौ ज्ञाने विशेषतः ।।१।।

*paścāttāpa nivr̥ttyartham parityāgo vicāryate
sa mārgādvitaye prokto bhaktau jñāne viśeṣataḥ*

In order to remove anxiety, I now consider the true nature of renunciation. Renunciation has been specifically mentioned in the paths of Devotion and Knowledge. (1)

कर्ममार्गे न कर्तव्यः सुतरां कलिकालतः । अत आदौ भक्तिमार्गे कर्तव्यत्वाद्विचारणा ।।२।।

*karmamārge na kartavyaḥ sutarāṁ kalikālataḥ
ata ādau bhaktimārge kartavyatvādvicāraṇā*

Renunciation should never be undertaken in the Path of Karma, especially during this current age of struggle. And so I present my thoughts on the true nature of renunciation and how a person should attain it according to the Path of Loving Devotion. (2)

श्रवणादिप्रसिद्धयर्थं कर्तव्यश्चेत् स नेष्यते । सहायसंगसाध्यत्वात् साधनानां च रक्षणात् ।।३।।

*śravaṇādiprasiddhyartham kartavyaścet sa neṣyate
sahāyasangaśādhyatvāt sādhanānām ca rakṣaṇāt*

If one renounces the world with the hopes of attaining perfection by listening to sacred teachings and other related spiritual practices, I say to them that world renunciation is not advisable. The reasons are that for the practice and protection of devotion, one needs to take the spiritual assistance of others. (3)

अभिमानान्नियोगाच्च तद्धर्मैश्च विरोधतः ।
गृहादेर्बाधकत्वेन साधनार्थं तथा यदि ।।४।।

अग्रेऽपि तादृशैरेव संगो भवति नान्यथा ।
स्वयं च विषयाक्रान्तः पाषण्डी स्यात्तु कालतः ।।५।।

abhimānānniyogācca taddharmaiśca virodhataḥ grhāderbādhakatvena sādhanārtham tathā yadi agre'pi tādrśaireva saṅgo bhavati nānyathā svayaṁ ca viṣayākrāntaḥ pāṣaṇḍi syāttu kālataḥ

The practice of renunciation, especially the taking of sanyasa (becoming a monk), can create a false sense of pride. The sanyasi's restrictions are mostly contrary to devotional practices. If one feels that worldly life is obstructive to devotional life and therefore renounces the home, let it be known that the same obstructions found at home will arise again elsewhere in the form of bad association. Overcome with mundane hankerings, the person who renounces the home becomes a hypocrite, for these are the impure days of the age of struggle. (4-5)

विषयाक्रान्तदेहानां नावेशः सर्वदा हरेः ।

अतोऽत्र साधने भक्तौ नैव त्यागः सुखावहः ॥६॥

*viṣayākrāntadehānām nāveśaḥ sarvadā hareḥ
ato'tra sādhanē bhaktau naiva tyāgaḥ sukhāvahaḥ*

Know that Hari will never enter the heart of a person whose body is overcome with worldly desires. For these reasons, renunciation of the world will not provide satisfactory results. (6)

विरहानुभवार्थं तु परित्यागः प्रशस्यते ।

स्वीयबन्धनिवृत्त्यर्थं वेशः सोऽत्र न चान्यथा ॥७॥

*virahānubhavārthaṁ tu parityāgaḥ praśasyate
svīyabandhanivṛttiyarthaṁ veśaḥ so'tra na cānyathā*

In the higher states of devotion, when one yearns to experience the rapture of the Beloved's separation, renunciation is praised. Then a change of cloth is made in order to break ties from worldly family members and for no other reason. (7)

कौण्डिन्यो गोपिकाः प्रोक्ताः गुरवः साधनं च तत् ।

भावो भावनया सिद्धः साधनं नान्यदिष्यते ॥८॥

*kaundīnyo gopikāḥ proktā guravaḥ sādhanam ca tat
bhāvo bhāvanayā siddhaḥ sādhanam nānyadiṣyate*

Concerning practice, the guru of lawful devotion is the sage Kaudinya Rishi, while the grace-filled gurus are the Gopis of Vrindavan. The attainment of Shri Krishna can never be dependent upon any formula. Shri Krishna, who is perfect bhava, is attained through the precise emulation of those who have already attained Him. (8)

विकलत्वं तथास्वास्थ्यं प्रकृतिः प्राकृतं न हि ।

ज्ञानं गुणाश्च तस्यैवं वर्तमानस्य बाधकाः ॥९॥

*vikalatvaṁ tathāsvāsthyam prakṛtiḥ prakṛtaṁ na hi
jñānam guṇāśca tasyaivaṁ vartamānasya bādhakāḥ*

The bhakta who has attained the state of Krishna awareness is divinely dismayed for she can no longer remain without her Beloved. She is afflicted, yet her condition is not physical. For such an exalted bhakta, wisdom and knowledge of Brahman's attributes are actually obstructions. (9)

सत्यलोके स्थितिर्ज्ञानात् संन्यासेन विशेषितात् ।

भावना साधनं यत्र फलं चापि तथा भवेत् ॥१०॥

*satyaloke sthitiṛjñānāt saṁnyāseṇa viśeṣitāt
bhāvanā sādhanam yatra phalaṁ cāpi tathā bhavet*

A renunciate who has distinct knowledge can go to the highest material sphere of Satya Loka. Know that the reward attained always corresponds to the type of worship that was performed. (10)

तादृशाः सत्यलोकादौ तिष्ठन्त्येव न संशयः ।

बहिश्चेत् प्रकटः स्वात्मा वह्निवत् प्रविशेद्यदि ॥११॥

*tādṛśāḥ satyalokādau tiṣṭhantyeva na saṁśayaḥ
bahiścet prakṛtaḥ svātmā vahnivat praviśedyadi*

Without a doubt, knowledge-filled renunciates can remain in Satya Loka. Like fire appears from a piece of wood, the Beloved manifests from the heart right before the bhakta and then re-enters the blessed being. (11)

तदैव सकलो बन्धो नाशमेति न चान्यथा ।

गुणास्तु संगराहित्याज्जीवनार्थं भवन्ति हि ॥१२॥

tadaiva sakalo bandho naśameti na cānyathā gunāstu saṅgarāhityājjivanārtham bhavanti hi

This is really the only way the bhakta's obstructions are overcome. The bhakta who does not have the Blessed Lord directly in front of her maintains her life by feeling His virtues. (12)

भगवान् फलरूपत्वान्नात्र बाधक इष्यते ।
स्वास्थ्यवाक्यं न कर्तव्यं दयालुर्न विरुध्यते ।।१३।।

*bhagavān phalarūpatvānnātra bādhaka iṣyate
svāsthyavākyaṁ na kartavyaṁ dayālurna virudhyate*

The Blessed Lord Himself is the reward and He does not wish to obstruct His bhakta by giving her mere words of encouragement that could actually diminish the intensity of the devotional experience. In this divine fashion His kindness is not compromised. (13)

दुर्लभोऽयं परित्यागः प्रेम्णा सिध्यति नान्यथा ।
ज्ञानमार्गे तु संन्यासो द्विविधोपि विचारितः ।।१४।।

durlabho'yam parityāgaḥ premṇā sidhyati nānyathā jñānamārge tu saṁnyāso dvividho'pi vicāritaḥ

This type of renunciation is rare and attained only by love. In the Path of Knowledge, two kinds of renunciation have been spoken about. (14)

ज्ञानार्थमुत्तरांगं च सिद्धिर्जन्मशतैः परम् । ज्ञानं च साधनापेक्षं यज्ञादिश्रवणान्तम् ।।१५।।

*jñānārthamuttarāṅgaṁ ca siddhirjanmaśataiḥ param
jñānaṁ ca sādhanāpekṣaṁ yajñādiśravaṇānmatam*

One type of practitioner practices renunciation to attain knowledge. The superior adept resorts to renunciation after knowledge has arisen. In the first type of renunciation, it takes hundreds of births to attain perfection. We also hear from the Vedas that for this knowledge to arise, sacrifice and other Vedic practices are necessary. (15)

अतः कलौ स संन्यासः पश्चात्तापाय नान्यथा ।
पाषण्डित्वं भवेच्चापि तस्माज्ज्ञाने न संन्यसेत् ।।१६।।
सुतरां कलिदोषाणां प्रबलत्वादिति स्थितिः । भक्तिमार्गेऽपि चेददोषस्तदा किं कार्यमुच्यते ।।१७।।

ataḥ kalau sa saṁnyāsaḥ paścāttāpāya nānyathā pāṣaṇḍitvaṁ bhaveccāpi tasmājjñāne na saṁnyaset sutarāṁ kalidoṣaṇām prabala tvāditi sthitiḥ bhaktimārge'pi ceddoṣastadā kiṁ kāryamucyate

And so, Sanyasa in this age of struggle creates only regret and breeds hypocrisy. Therefore do not renounce along the lines of the Path of Knowledge, especially during this age of Kali when impurities are very powerful. If the impurities of the Kali Yuga arise in the practice of devotion, then what should be done? (16-17)

अत्रारम्भे न नाशः स्याद् दृष्टान्तस्याप्यभावतः ।
स्वास्थ्यहेतोः परित्यागाद्बाधः केनास्य सम्भवेत् ।।१८।।

*atrārambhe na nāśaḥ syād drṣṭāntasyāpyabhāvataḥ
svāsthyahetoḥ parityāgādbādhāḥ kenāsyā sambhavet*

The answer to that question is that in the path of devotion, from the very beginning, there can never be any ruin. A single example of such an occurrence cannot be found. When the bhakta has renounced her worldly well-being to delve into the depths of inner renunciation, what obstruction could ever arise for such a blessed one? (18)

हरिरत्र न शक्नोति कर्तुं बाधां कुतोऽपरे ।

अन्यथा मातरो बालान्न स्तन्यैः पुपुषुः क्वचित् ॥१९॥

*hariratra na śaknoti kartum bādham kuto'pare
anyathā mātaro bālānna stanyaiḥ pupuṣuḥ kvacit*

If Hari Himself cannot impede her, then how could there be any other hindrance? And if He did, then it would be like a mother who refuses to feed her own child. (19)

ज्ञानिनामपि वाक्येन न भक्तं मोहयिष्यति ।

आत्मप्रदः प्रियश्चापि किमर्थं मोहयिष्यति ॥२०॥

jñānināmapi vākyaena na bhaktam mohayiṣyati ātmapradaḥ priyāścapi kimartham mohayiṣyati

The words of people who follow the Path of Knowledge will never bewilder the bhakta. Why would Hari confuse His bhaktas to whom He has given His very Self and is so loved by them also? (20)

तस्मादुक्तप्रकारेण परित्यागो विधीयताम् ।

अन्यथा भ्रश्यते स्वार्थादिति मे निश्चिता मतिः ॥२१॥

*tasmāduktaparakāreṇa parityāgo vidhīyatām
anyathā bhraśyate svārthāditi me niścītā matiḥ*

Therefore bhaktas should only renounce along the devotional path I have narrated. Anyone who becomes a renunciate for their own selfish benefit becomes corrupted in the process. This is my firm opinion. (21)

इति कृष्णप्रसादेन वल्लभेन विनिश्चितम् ।

संन्यासवरणं भक्तौ अन्यथा पतितो भवेत् ॥२२॥

iti kṛṣṇaprasādena vallabhena viniścitam samnyāsavarāṇam bhaktau anyathā patito bhavet

In this way, with the grace of Shri Krishna, Shri Vallabhacharya has without a doubt decided that one should choose the devotional type of renunciation, otherwise the practitioner will fall from his purpose. (22)

The Teachings of Shri Vallabhacharya

निरोधलक्षणम् Nirodha, Bound by Hari

Shri Vallabhacharya's explanation of Nirodha does not follow the traditional yogic definition of nirodha which is "to control the tendencies of the senses". Nirodha here is with God and it arises when a bhakta falls under His control. The bhakta is bound by His cords of Love and possessed by His continual presence. In this text, originally written for Raja and Madhav Dube in about 1510 A.D., the master prays for nirodha, achieves it and also explains how to attain it.

यच्च दुःखं यशोदाया नन्दादीनां च गोकुले ।
गोपिकानां तु यद् दुःखं तद् दुःखं स्यान्मम क्वचित् ॥१॥

*yacca duḥkhaṁ yaśodāyā nandādīnām ca gokule
gopikānām tu yad duḥkhaṁ tad duḥkhaṁ syānmama kvacit*

When may I experience the rapture of that divine affliction that struck Krishna's mother Yashoda, His father Nanda, as well as the Gopis and the other Gokul bhaktas? (1)

गोकुले गोपिकानां च सर्वेषां व्रजवासिनाम् । यत्सुखं समभूत् तन्मे भगवान् किं विधास्यति ॥२॥

*gokule gopikānām ca sarveṣāṁ vrajavāsinām
yatsukhaṁ samabhūt tanme bhagavān kiṁ vidhāsyati*

When will the Beloved Lord give me the joy that the Gopis of Gokul and all the residents of Braja experienced? (2)

Nirodha, Bound by Hari

उद्धवागमने जात उत्सवः सुमहान् यथा । वृन्दावने गोकुले वा तथा मे मनसि क्वचित् ॥३॥

*uddhavāgamane jāta utsavaḥ sumahān yathā
vrndāvane gokule vā tathāme manasi kvacit*

When will my heart feel the great celebration that took place when Uddhava arrived in Vrindavan and Gokul? (3)

महतां कृपया यावद्भगवान् दययिष्यति । तावदानन्दसन्दोहः कीर्त्यमानः सुखाय हि ॥४॥

mahatām kṛpayā yāvadbhagavān dayayiṣyati tāvādānandasandohaḥ kīrtiyamānaḥ sukhāya hi

As long as the favour of the great devotional beings prevails, the Blessed Lord will shower His mercy. Until then the singing of His abundant bliss affords His bhaktas joy. (4)

महतां कृपया यद्वत् कीर्तनं सुखदं सदा । न तथा लौकिकानां तु स्निग्धभोजनरूक्षवत् ॥५॥

*mahatām kṛpayā yadvat kīrtanaṁ sukhadaṁ sadā
na tathā laukikānām tu snigdhabhojanarūkṣavat*

The blessing of the Great Bhaktas always produces blissful praise that is not like the tunes of worldly people. It is like comparing stale dry food to a rich delicious meal. (5)

गुणगाने सुखावाप्तिर्गोविन्दस्य प्रजायते । यथा तथा शुकादीनां नैवात्मनि कुतोऽन्यतः ॥६॥

*guṇagāne sukhāvāptirgovindasya prajāyate
yathā tathā śukādīnām naivātmāni kuto'nyataḥ*

When the pleasure attained by singing the praises of Govinda is not known by Shri Sukadeva or others who are established in Self-Realization, then how can it arise in any other place? (6)

क्लिश्यमानान् जनान् दृष्ट्वा कृपायुक्तो यदा भवेत् । तदा सर्वं सदानन्दं हृदिस्थं निर्गतं बहिः । ७ ।।

*klīśyamānān janān dr̥ṣṭvā kṛpāyukto yadā bhavet
tadā sarvaṁ sadānandaṁ hṛdisthaṁ nirgataṁ bahiḥ*

When the Beloved sees the divine affliction of His own souls, He becomes full of compassion. Then Hari, Who is always joyful, manifests from their hearts directly before them. (7)

सर्वानन्दमयस्यापि कृपानन्दः सुदुर्लभः ।
हृदगतः स्वगुणान् श्रुत्वा पूर्णः प्लावयते जनान् । ८ ।।

*sarvānandamayasyāpi kṛpānandaḥ sudurlabhaḥ
hṛdgataḥ svaguṇān śrutvā pūrṇaḥ plāvayate janān*

The bliss of His grace is even rarer than the joy of His omnipresent form. When Shri Krishna, Who dwells within His bhakta's hearts, hears them singing His praises, He completely soaks them with bliss. (8)

तस्मात् सर्वं परित्यज्य निरुद्धैः सर्वदा गुणाः । सदानन्दपरैर्गेयाः सच्चिदानन्दता ततः । ९ ।।

*tasmāt sarvaṁ parityajya niruddhaiḥ sarvadā guṇāḥ
sadānandaparairegyāḥ saccidānandatā tataḥ*

Those who are bound by Hari leave everything else and abide in His constant joy, always singing His praises. They become full of perfect truth, consciousness and bliss. (9)

अहं निरुद्धो रोधेन निरोधपदवीं गतः । निरुद्धानां तु रोधाय निरोधं वर्णयामि ते । १० ।।

aham niruddho rodhena nirodhapadavīm gataḥ niruddhānām tu rodhaya nirodhami varṇayāmi te

I am possessed by Krishna. I have attained this divine state of nirodha by falling under His control. Now I explain the nature of nirodha for those who are ready to be bound by Hari, for the sake of their nirodha. (10)

हरिणा ये विनिर्मुक्तास्ते मग्ना भवसागरे ।
ये निरुद्धास्त एवात्र मोदमायान्त्यहर्निशम् । ११ ।।

*harinā ye vinirmuktāste magnā bhavasāgarē
ye niruddhāsta evātra modamāyāntyaharniśam*

Those that Hari has liberated from Himself are absorbed into the worldly ocean while those He binds to Himself surely experience supreme joy day and night. (11)

संसारवेश दुष्टानामिन्द्रियाणां हिताय वै । कृष्णस्य सर्ववस्तूनि भूम्न ईशस्य योजयेत् । १२ ।।

*samsāraveśa duṣṭānāmindriyāṇāṁ hitāya vai
kṛṣṇasya sarvavastūni bhūmna īśasya yojayet*

For the benefit of corrupt senses that are obsessed with the mundane world, everything in life should be united with the omnipresent inner-controller, Shri Krishna. (12)

गुणेष्वविष्ट चित्तानां सर्वदा मुरवैरिणः । संसारविरहक्लेशौ न स्यातां हरिवत्सुखम् । १३ ।।

*guṇeṣvaviṣṭa cittānām sarvadā muravairinaḥ
samsāravirahakleśau na syātām harivatsukham*

The blessed ones, whose minds are always filled with the divine virtues of Shri Krishna, have no worldly woes or separations. The joy they experience is similar to Hari's. (13)

The Teachings of Shri Vallabhacharya

तदा भवेद् दयालुत्वमन्यथा क्रूरता मता । बाधशंकापि नास्त्यत्र तदध्यासोऽपि सिध्यति ॥१४॥

*tadā bhaved dayālutvamanyathā krūratā matā
bādhaśaṅkāpi nāstyatra tadadhyāso 'pi sidhyati*

For those blessed ones, Hari becomes merciful, otherwise, He would be perceived as heartless. Obstructions are impossible in the devotional position because Shri Krishna's presence perfects everything. (14)

भगवद्धर्म सामर्थ्याद्विरागो विषये स्थिरः । गुणैर्हरि सुखस्पर्शान्न दुःखं भाति कर्हिचित् ॥१५॥

bhagavaddharma sāmārthyādvirāgo viṣaye sthiraḥ guṇairhari sukhasparsānna duḥkhaṁ bhaāti karhicit

The power of the Beloved's dharma creates firm distaste for worldliness. When Krishna's blissful essence is touched while singing His glories, one will never experience mundane suffering again. (15)

एवं ज्ञात्वा ज्ञानमार्गादुत्कर्षो गुणवर्णने । अमत्सरैरलुब्धैश्च वर्णनीयाः सदा गुणाः ॥१६॥

*evam jñātvā jñānamārgād utkarṣo guṇavarṇane
amatsarairalubdhaiśca varṇanīyāḥ sadā guṇāḥ*

Singing about Beloved Hari is superior to the Path of Knowledge. And so, free of jealousy and greed, bhaktas should always praise His divine virtues. (16)

हरिमूर्तिः सदा ध्येया संकल्पादपि तत्र हि । दर्शनं स्पर्शनं स्पष्टं तथा कृतिगती सदा ॥१७॥

Nirodha, Bound by Hari

harimurtiḥ sadā dhyeyā saṅkalpādapi tatra hi darśanam sparsanam spaṣṭam tathā kṛtigatī sadā

Always reflect on Hari's form with conviction. See and touch Him directly. Always make every movement for Him. (17)

श्रवणं कीर्तनं स्पष्टं पुत्रे कृष्णप्रिये रतिः । पायोर्मलांशत्यागेन शेषभावं तनौ नयेत् ॥१८॥

*śravaṇam kīrtanam spaṣṭam putre kṛṣṇapriye ratiḥ
pāyormalāṁśatyāgena śeṣabhāvaṁ tanau nayet*

Sing and hear clearly. Have loving exchanges with your spouse to have a child beloved to Krishna. Even the passing of stool is so that the body will be refreshed and then useful in His seva. (18)

यस्य वा भगवत्कार्यं यदा स्पष्टं न दृश्यते । तदा विनिग्रहस्तस्य कर्तव्य इति निश्चयः ॥१९॥

*yasya vā bhagavatkāryam yadā spaṣṭam na drśyate
tadā vinigrahastasya kartavya iti niścayaḥ*

If one recognizes that one's senses are not clearly employed in the Blessed Lord's work, then one should, without a doubt, control them. (19)

नातः परतरो मन्त्रो नातः परतरः स्तवः । नातः परतरा विद्या तीर्थं नातः परात्परम् ॥२०॥

*nātaḥ parataro mantra nātaḥ paratarah stavah
nātaḥ paratarā vidyā tirtham nātaḥ parātparam*

There is no mantra, prayer, knowledge, or holy place that is superior to this blessed state of nirodha. (20)

सेवाफल The Rewards of Seva

This last teaching of the sixteen works, was given to Vishnudas in 1526 A.D. Since he had difficulty in understanding the instructions given in this text, Shri Vallabhacharya composed his own commentary that has also been absorbed into this translation. The Master speaks of both three-fold rewards and hindrances in seva. Anxiety in all circumstances should be abandoned because the giving of the divine reward is in God's hands.

यादृशी सेवना प्रोक्ता तत्सिद्धौ फलमुच्यते । अलौकिकस्य दाने हि चाद्यः सिध्येन्मनोरथः ॥१॥

*yādrśī sevanaṁ proktā tatsiddhau phalamucyate
alaukikasya dāne hi cādyah sidhyenmanorathah*

I have explained before that seva arises when the mind is threaded into the blessed practice. Now I will explain the rewards of seva when it is perfectly performed. From the moment that the Blessed Lord gives a divine gift, the bhakta's spiritual desires are fulfilled. (1)

फलं वा ह्यधिकारो वा न कालोऽत्र नियामकः ।
उद्वेगः प्रतिबन्धो वा भोगो वा स्यात्तु बाधकम् ॥२॥

*phalam vā hyadhikāro vā na kālo'tra niyāmakah
udvegah pratibandho vā bhogo vā syāttu bādhakam*

Time is never a controlling factor regarding eligibility and the three rewards of seva. These rewards are the capacity to experience transcendent love, to be absorbed into God's lila and to attain a spiritual form that is useful in eternal realms. Anxiety, obstructions, and worldly enjoyment are the three things that hinder seva. (2)

अकर्तव्यं भगवतः सर्वथा चेद गतिर्नहि । यथा वा तत्त्वनिर्धारो विवेकः साधनं मतम् ॥३॥ *akartavyam bhagavataḥ sarvathā ced gatirnahi

yathā vā tattvanirdhāro vivekah sādhanam matam*

If the Blessed Lord does not desire to give a reward in any way, then there is simply no solution. Then the practitioner's approach is to wisely access the truth of the situation. (3)

बाधकानां परित्यागो भोगेऽप्येकं तथा परम् । निष्प्रत्यूहं महान् भोगः प्रथमे विशते सदा ॥४॥ *bādhakānām parityāgo bhogepyekam tathā param

niṣpratyūham mahān bhogah prathamē viśate sadā*

Worldly enjoyment and the other hindrances I mentioned should be fully abandoned. There is also a Divine Enjoyment. It is free from every impediment and is the Krishna reward. Both God-created hindrances and divine rewards are always beyond the bhakta's control. (4)

सविघ्नोऽल्पो घातकः स्याद् बलादेतौ सदा मतौ ।
द्वितीये सर्वथा चिन्ता त्याज्या संसारनिश्चयात् ॥५॥

savighno'lpo ghātakah syād balādetau sadā matau dvitīye sarvathā cintā tyājyā saṁsāraniścayāt

Worldly enjoyment is insignificant and destructive. These two aspects of worldly enjoyment are always to be considered powerful. One should also renounce anxiety concerning a God-created obstruction. It should be seen as just a movement within mundane reality. (5)

नत्वाद्ये दातृता नास्ति तृतीये बाधकं गृहम् । अवश्येयं सदा भाव्या सर्वमन्यन्मनोभ्रमः ॥६॥

*natvādye dātṛtā nāsti tṛtiye bādhakam grham
avaśyeyaṁ sadā bhāvyā sarvamanyanmanobhramah*

If anxiety arises (the first hindrance), then it should be understood that the Blessed Lord is simply not ready to give a reward at that time. In the third hindrance, worldly enjoyment, the mundane home is the obstacle. Always consider these hindrances to be beyond the bhakta's jurisdiction. Any other thought on the subject is mere confusion. (6)

तदीयैरपि तत् कार्यं पुष्टौ नैव विलम्बयेत् । गुणक्षोभेऽपि द्रष्टव्यमेतदेवेति मे मतिः ॥७॥

*tadīyairapi tat kāryaṁ puṣṭau naiṁ vilambayet
guṇakṣobhe'pi dṛṣṭavyametadeveti me matiḥ*

Those bhaktas who belong to Him should consider these teachings concerning rewards and hindrances and know that Krishna does not delay His grace. My opinion here is that even if the mind becomes unstable due to the forces of material natures, the truths that I have established in this teaching should be grasped. (7)

कुसृष्टिरत्र वा काचिदुत्पद्येत स वै भ्रमः ।

kusṛṣṭiratra vā kācidutpadyeta sa vai bhramah

Any distortion that might arise here is a mere delusion. (8)

The Last Teachings

शिक्षापद्यानि The Last Teachings

Shri Vallabhacharya left his home to spend his last days by the banks of the Ganges at Hanuman Ghat in Banares. His two sons and several close followers went there to receive the last teachings. Just before the silent Master was to enter the Ganges and merge into a column of light with his body to ascend to his Beloved, he wrote three and a half lines of devotional counsel in the sands.

यदा बहिर्मुखा यूयं भविष्यथ कथञ्चन ।
तदा कालप्रवाहस्था देहचित्तादयोप्युत ॥९॥
सर्वथा भक्षयिष्यन्ति युष्मान् इति मतिर्मम । न लौकिकः प्रभुः कृष्णो मनुते नैव लौकिकम् ॥१०॥

*yadā bahirmukhā yūyaṁ bhaviṣyath kathañcana tadā kālapravāhasthā dehacittādayopyuta sarvathā bhakṣayiṣyanti yuṣmān iti matirmama
na laukikaḥ prabhuḥ kṛṣṇo manute naiva laukikam*

I believe that if you ever turn away from Shri Krishna, your body and mind and everything that exists in the flow of time will always be devoured. Shri Krishna is not mundane nor does He accept the worship of worldly people. (1-2)

भावस्तत्राप्यस्मदीयः सर्वस्वश्चैहिकश्च सः । परलोकश्च तेनायं सर्वभावेन सर्वथा । सेव्यः स एव गोपीशो विधास्यत्यखिलं हि नः ॥११॥

bhāvastatrāpyasmadīyaḥ sarvasvaścaihikaśca saḥ paralokaśca tenāyaṁ sarvabhāvena sarvathā sevyāḥ sa eva gopīśo vidhāsyatyakhilam hi naḥ

Our bhava for Him in this world or in any other is our and everything. The Lord of the Gopis is to be worshipped with every devotional feeling at all times. (3)

Then Shri Krishna appeared before them and gave the final teaching.

मयि चेऽस्ति विश्वासः श्रीगोपीजनवल्लभे । तदा कृतार्था यूयं हि शोचनीयं न कर्हिचित् ॥४॥

*mayi ce'sti viśvāsaḥ śrīgopījanavallabhe
tadā kṛtārthā yūyaṁ hi śocanīyaṁ na karhicit*

If you believe in Me, the Beloved of the Gopis, then you are spiritually accomplished and there is absolutely nothing else to be concerned with. (4)

मुक्तिहित्वान्यथ रूपं स्वरूपेण व्यवस्थितिः ॥५॥

muktihitvānyatha rūpaṁ svarūpeṇa vyavasthitih

Then after learning everything wordly, you are established in the form of liberation. (5)
